'Help To Hear' Years Project Of Royal Neighbors America

Royal Neighbors of America met for their business meeting at the IOOF temple, Fannie McFarland, post state oracle, presided in the absence of Kate Talbott, oracle.

The flag was presented by Nell Clark. After lodge was officially opened, a recess was called for the program, under the direction of Esther Hofmann. Entering were three little girls dressed as angels and each carrying a lighted candle and sang "Gods Little Angel," as an encore number they carried their dolls and sang, "All Through the Night." Taking part were DeAnn McBeth, Judy Hofmann, and Carman Richey, accompanied by Mary Ellen Hardy at the piano.

Members were reported sick. Ethel Saling is still a patient at the Grande Ronde Hospital. Ernestine Simonis and her new son have gone home from the hospital, also Lanora Dockweiler. Many were reported ill at home.

A card was read from Mable Laudenschlager at the Royal Neighbor Home in Davenport, Iowa, thanking the lodge for her birthday gift and also telling of an injury she suffered. Gifts were sent to Mrs. Donald Lambert and her new baby at Boise, Idaho, and to Zelma Elder, who was injured in a car accident at Eugene.

Gladys Huff Lester, district deputy, told of the "Help to Hear" project which the Royal Neighbors throughout the country have adopted, since there are some three million children in the United States with hearing problems. She asked that the La Grande camp work toward the goal of raising money to secure hearing aids for needy children.

Mrs. Lester appointed three visitors to head the campaign "Space Age" in shooting for the moon. Annette Hoadley, Wilma Payne and Matilda Tsatsios, with Neva King as general chairman in charge.

All members are also reminded to bring their coffee bands. Miss King contributed to the "Birthday Kitty" while all sang Happy Birthday.

All juveniles of the camp will be entertained with a mask "Hallow-en party in the basement at the hall, from 6 p.m. till 7:30, Oct. 26. At 8 p.m. the adults will hold a "Hobo" party with all members asked to come in appropriate costume. Each is to bring a sack lunch for an exchange of sacks by number. Annette Hoadley and her team will be in charge of this party. There will not be a lodge meeting.
