

'Most Exclusive' U.S. Club In Business Holds Meeting

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Would you like to dine with 100 of the most powerful businessmen in America? They gathered, with their wives, here at the well-appointed Del Monte Lodge for a three-day, secluded party which broke up Sunday when most of them flew back to the east coast by chartered jet.

The magistrates were members of what might be termed the most exclusive club in the country. It's called the Business Advisory Council of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

For practical purposes, to be a member, you must control a round one billion dollars and be able to get along with others who do the same. A few men who deal merely in hundreds of millions were not invited by the group.

50 Per Cent Control

These one-hundred men have been estimated to control, one way or another, as much as 50 per cent of the nation's production.

The occasion for the party was a closed business session of the council. The members held two three-hour sessions and spent the rest of the time playing.

They did not look much different from any other group which keeps the crease in its trousers. Among the men, there were a few more vests, a few more rugged profiles, and a few more resonant voices than usual. Other-

SHOW MUST GO ON—An anonymous phone call, announcing that a bomb had been planted in the theater, sent a packed house into the streets for a half hour, during the concert of Maria Callas in Kansas City. After the theater was searched and no bomb found, the crowd, including former President Harry S. Truman, filed back and Miss Callas finished her performance. The former president congratulates the spirited soprano in her dressing room after her performance.

Aunt Jemima Due Here This Week; Kiwanis Host

With Aunt Jemima due here Thursday, the local Kiwanis Club is engaged in last minute preparations for the event which continues through Friday.

Edward Alexander, club president, has assured all visitors to the two-day pancake feed of a wonderful time. Enough manpower has been volunteered by the civic organization to feed practically every man, woman and child around these parts.

The shindig will be put on at the local Armory and tickets can be purchased at the door by late comers. Ducats are now on sale at Graham's Drugs, Bernhardt's, Chamber of Commerce, Two GI's and Globe Furniture. Proceeds derived go for local youth work.

Other stars will appear on the show. They include Elmer Beckel, guitarist, well known locally. One of the top prizes will be state-wide competition between cooking moms. A free trip to Disneyland is also in the offing.

Pope John May Call Consistory

VATICAN CITY, (UPI) — The death of Federico Cardinal Tedeschini revived speculation today that Pope John XXIII may soon hold another consistory for the naming of new princes of the church.

Even before Cardinal Tedeschini's death Monday, reports had been circulating here for some time that the Pontiff planned to increase further the strength of the Sacred College to as many as 100 Cardinals.

Until Pope John's reign, the college did not exceed 70 cardinals.

Reveal Dave Beck Park Lot Helper

SEATTLE (UPI) — Too much publicity has caused former Teamsters Union President Dave Beck to retire from his job of parking lot attendant.

Beck was spotlighted in the press and on radio and television Wednesday when it was discovered that he was spending three or four hours a day working at the parking lot he owns, one of many business enterprises.

"I'm a curiosity now," said Beck who is waiting while higher courts study appeals of his income tax evasion and grand larceny convictions. "I can't spend all my time answering questions, I'd go broke."

Beck, who rose from laundry truck driver to the presidency of the nation's biggest union, had been directing cars to parking stalls and making change at the lot for the past few months.

"It was good honest labor," said Beck. "I'm no better than anybody else. And I was doing pretty good 'til the papers found out about it."

Railroad Workers Set Mass Meeting

CHICAGO (UPI) — A mass meeting of railroad workers here Thursday night will answer a "propaganda and advertising campaign" of the nation's railroads, the Railroad Labor Executives Association said Monday.

Thousands of workers were expected to attend the meeting, the association said, to hear talks by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

The association said the rally would launch a labor counter-attack against rail industry charges of featherbedding and its campaign to seek changes in railroad work rules.
