Royal Neighbors Of America Hold Halloween Festivities

Characters of all descriptions roamed the spooky rooms at the IOOF hall, when the Royal Neighbors of America Juveniles were entertained at a Halloween party. As each came in costume, they entered down a dimly lighted stairway, which was decorated with cornstalks, skeleton and streamers. They were met by a ghost and also an old witch which came out of a dark doorway. They entered a room with skeletons hanging from various corners and also a large skeleton hanging over the witches' fortune pot, with the campfire beneath. Cornstalks were at each end of the room with black cats and skeletons peering from behind, orange and black streamers were entwined across the room, with cats, bats, witches and other spooks on the sidewalks. Across the back hung rows of apples.

Methodist Youth Gathers Clothing

WALLOWA (Special)—On Oct. 30, the Junior Methodist Youth Fellowship, canvassed the town between 6:30 and 8:30, collecting used clothes. The work was successful and a very large quantity of clothing was gathered. The MYF has this project which is under the guidance of World Service.

Tsiatsos and Hazel Case. They then exchanged sack lunches, which were packed in all sizes of bags and filled with food which any hobo would enjoy. Emma Becker was given the prize for looking the most like a tramp even to the whiskers and Gladys Lester was picked as second prize winner. Her prize was a white bedspread, presented by hobo Fannie McFarland from the lodge, as a wedding present. Roll call of the "Space Age" membership campaign, found Annette Hoadley and her team with the most members present.

ANN LANDERS Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: This letter is for the mother of Lollie who wouldn't let her go out with service men because they are "the scum of the earth."
I wonder if Lollie's mother ever stopped to think how much "scum" died on foreign soil so the United States would be safe for her fancy daughter.
I lost two handsome, bright boys. One was 19, the other 22. My husband died of a broken heart before the war ended. The only thing that kept me alive was the thought that I had two daughters to raise.

Dear Ann Landers: Joe and I have been married less than a year and we are already having serious trouble.
We went together three years before we married. I admit we fought like cats and dogs, but I thought it was the way people in love ironed out their problems.

National Gem Fair Reports Given Here
Thirty eight Blue Mountain Gem Club members and five visitors convened at The Women's Club-house when a three point program was carried out. Visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred White of Mabton, Wash.; Keith Hawn of Hagerman, Ida.; Mrs. Pearl Webb and Earl Freeman of La Grande.

The meeting was presided over by Ralph Gerards, and a report was read on the results of the American and Northwest Federation meeting held over Labor Day weekend. Mrs. A. W. Hancock, Federation secretary, reported that the National Gem Fair was a huge success—more than 23,000 visitors went through the doors, and 1500 members were present. She reported that the show was both a social and financial success. Expenses totaled $9,000 but the club netted a good profit too.

There were 33 dealers, all doing a good business and many field trips. One was a pre-scheduled bus tour across country, with the bus stopping at good rock locations each day.
There were 200 competitive exhibits, some as far away as Florida and Australia. There were committees working together in harmony thus bringing the Oregon Rock Society's 450 members closer together and helping the new members to become better acquainted. The 1960 meeting will be at Eugene, over the Labor Day weekend.

The Elgin members will host the meeting for Nov. 7 at the Methodist Church at Elgin. A potluck is set for 7 p.m. with the proceeds from the slab sale was adequate to furnish the means of a successful Christmas party. Trays were displayed by Dr. and Mrs. Koester, Ralph Gerards and Oliver Barlow, John Ryan was the recipient of the door prize.

Non-Surgical Method Cures Hemorrhoids Painlessly

A relatively painless, non-surgical method of treating hemorrhoids (piles) is working therapeutic miracles for thousands who suffer from rectal and colon disorders.
A recently developed electronic treatment is proving more effective than surgery, with none of the after effects of surgery.
The treatment requires no hospitalization or confinement. Patients show marked improvement almost immediately, and uncomplicated cases can be frequently cured in as little as 10 days.

To The Voters Of La Grande

We, the undersigned, appeal to you, our neighbors, to vote against the Lagoon Sewage Disposal installation, not because we don't want your city and our community to grow, but because the proposed site is not conducive to the best interests of La Grande and the surrounding area. Construction of these ponds at the proposed site would preclude the already evident growth of your community in the area east of La Grande.

We are sympathetic to your problem, but urge you to think this issue through and not adopt a stop-gap proposal. We are in favor of a modern, up-to-date disposal system for La Grande, but feel that the City Commission has not fully investigated all the facts, and that you voters, and we of the surrounding area, have not been fully advised.
