

Syracuse, LSU Lead Grid Teams In Defensive Stats

NEW YORK (UPI) — It will be surprising if Syracuse and Louisiana State give Penn State and Tennessee much more than a "big game" in their football games Saturday.

That's about the only thing that shows Syracuse leading the va-

Almost three inches of snow cover the fairway and part of putting green at the La Grande Country Club yesterday after the season's first snow fall. While hardy golfers defy rain, sleet, hail to pitch and putt, snow hails the efforts of duffer and pro alike. (Observer Photo)

INDIAN ON TOUR

NEW YORK (UPI) — Heavy weight champion Ingemar Johansson will begin a month-long tour of Latin America by appearing in a four-round exhibition at Kingston, Jamaica, Dec. 2. His itinerary also includes stops at Cuba, Panama, Dec. 6, and Lima, Peru, Dec. 8.

CUBS SIGN RICE

CHICAGO (UPI) — Catcher Ted Rice, who played on three pennant-winning teams, has been signed by the Chicago Cubs as an active player for the 1960 season. Rice, a veteran of 14 major league campaigns, was recently released as a free agent by Milwaukee. The 35-year-old batsman had started last season as a player but later was made a coach by the Braves.

PASSING IT ALONG—Passing is the most important job in football and former UD grid star George Shaw passes the idea along to son Johnny. George backs up Charley Conery at quarterback for the ambitious New York Giants and may start this week if Conery's ailing ankle doesn't heal.

WILT CHAMBERLIN WOVES FANS WITH RECORD PERFORMANCES

United Press International
 Note: National Basketball Association records. Be prepared to regulate with the following: —Wilt Chamberlain, Philadelphia Warriors.
 Chamberlain, a prime cause for Philadelphia's three straight wins in NBA play this season, kept the Warriors' slim lead Wednesday night when he poured in 45 points and rebounded 49 rebounds to lead his team to a 128-113 victory over the Syracuse Nationals.
 With the NBA's brilliant performance has been pacing the NBA's scoring leaders with a 40-point per game average. The hometown giant also is tops in rebound averages with a 28-a-game mark. If the Philadelphia flippers

Rams Choice To Top Forty-Niners Sunday

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — It is the old story of the "unresolvable" rivalry between the Los Angeles Rams and the San Francisco 49ers Sunday when the Forty Niners and Rams battle in the Los Angeles Coliseum.
 The Los Angeles Rams, despite their 2-4 season mark, must rate as the powerful force, since they lead all the other pro football teams in total offense. The Rams have rolled up a total of 2,150 yards this year.
 But the San Francisco 49ers, under the first-year tutelage of coach Red Hickey, have not been easy men to move this season. The Forty Niners, fifth in total offense, are second only to the Green Bay Packers in defensive statistics.
 The odds-makers aren't too awed by the 9-1 record San Francisco

Last Balls Given At Golf Links

Golf balls were awarded to female members of the La Grande Country Club as competition ended for the year.
 June Moberly and Grace Thompson won the award in class A, Mabel Bohnenkamp and Millie Hyde took the awards in class B, Francis McCall took class C honors.
 The club pro, Ralph Moberly, and his family have left for La Quinta, Calif., where they will spend the winter. The Moberlys will return to La Grande in the spring.
