

CLYCLONE'S FURY—Wreckage in Manzanillo, Mexico, gives evidence of the fury of a cyclone that swept in from the Pacific Ocean devastating vast areas in three Mexican states. More than 1000 persons perished in the storm and hundreds of others are still unaccounted for.

Car Manufacturer Sees 'Switch' Back To U.S. Small Auto Makes

By FRANK ELEAZER
UPI Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Harold E. Churchill of the Studebaker-Packard Corp. finished his speech at the National Press Club's weekly lunch, and readied himself for the questions and answers to follow. Club President William H. Lawrence said first he had an announcement.

predicted the sale of imports has about reached its peak.
Fears Sneaky Plugs
Lawrence looked sad. It was true, he said, just like he announced, that this program wasn't fixed. But he said he was mighty afraid it had fallen into another of the pitfalls of TV - the sneaky introduction of plugs.

due to a brought out a year ago, will sell 165,000 autos and make $20,000,000 this year.
Before or after taxes? We wondered.
Both, he said, because the company lost so much money in some earlier years, it won't have to pay taxes this year. Tax law carries forward, he said, this device is called by the tax man.

Ike, Pope John Meeting Will Show Charming Personalities

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following dispatch was written by the United Press International religion writer who had an audience with Pope John XXIII last summer.
By LOUIS CASSELL
UPI Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Eisenhower's visit to the Vatican next month will bring to center two of the world's most magnetic personalities.

This reporter has met both men - the President on many occasions in Washington, the Pope at an audience at Castel Gandolfo three months ago.
He can testify that they are remarkably alike, despite their widely divergent backgrounds.
Talent for Being Liked

and that wasn't the only reason Churchill was looking so happy. He said his company, thanks to the unmentionable product it brought out a year ago, will sell 165,000 autos and make $20,000,000 this year.

They Made 'The Scene' Behind Bars

NEW YORK (UPI) - Man, the fuzziest came like they was from usible but when we made the scene it was all bars.
Translation: Detectives (fuzz), who masqueraded as beatniks (us-Ville) with beards, bongos, drums and desert boots, rounded up 50 of their newly won "beat generation" friends on dope charges Sunday after promising to take some of them to a party at the scene.

Share Strong Conviction

If they touch on the subject of religion, the Catholic Pope and the Presbyterian President will find that they share another strong conviction. Both feel it is high time for Christians of all persuasions to close ranks against the vicious materialistic philosophies which threaten to engulf the world.
Since the Pope is temporal sovereign of the tiny state of Vatican City, as well as a spiritual ruler, the meeting will be formal by a conference between chiefs of state.
