ANN LANDERS

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann: My husband's ex-wife is a lush and she won't leave him alone. They are separated by 700 miles but apparently it's not enough.

She phones him at least twice a week collect and rambles on and on about their two kids. She never has much to say except that they miss him something terrible and why doesn't he come home for a few days.

We both work so my husband can keep this boomer in bourbon and the kids in fancy clothes and voice lessons. She doesn't work but she has a Buick convertible and a sheared beaver coat. We ride the bus, and my coat is a smart tweed.

The phone bill in July was $67.70 and in August it was $74.20. Since I'm working and doing without things for his children I think it's unfair for his wife to seek us with outrageous phone bills. How about it?—Busted and Boiling.

Dear B and B: A collect call can only be completed if someone accepts the charges—so don't blame her, blame him. Since you are working to help your husband foot the alimony and support bills you have a right to complain. It's unfair of him to sock the household with big bills for his ex's bourbon babbling.

Dear Ann: I've been nominated for the 4-H Club News.

The Needles and Thread, 4-H club, met recently in the afternoon at Ladd Canyon. During the business meeting, officers were elected as follows: Sharon Carpenter, president; Nancy Stockhoff, vice president; Linda Hill, secretary; Jeanny Simmons, song and game leader; and Mildred Timmons, reporter.

The 4-H leader is Mrs. Clinton Hill of Ladd Canyon and Jean Hill is the junior leader.

The second meeting of the 4-H Blue Mountain Trail Gang was held at the home of Dave Wyland on Nov. 3.

The meeting was called to order by President Linda Yates and the usual order of business was conducted.

Donnie Starr, scrap drive chairman, reported to the club that the scrap drive recently completed was very successful and that they made $31.09.

A committee consisting of Donnie Starr, Maureen Beck and Suzy Michel was appointed by the president to draw up a point system by which the club member accumulating the most points at the end of the year will be awarded a special prize to be presented at the Achievement Day Program.

The meeting was concluded with games, and cider and cupcake served by the host, Dave Wyland. The club junior leaders will hold their meeting at the home of Suzy Michel to plan the club's year program on Nov. 24, at 7:30.

by the girls in this office to write to you about a fellow employee.

We are a group of refined young women who have been brought up in decent homes. This one odd-ball is upsetting everyone.

First, let me tell you she's no kid—she's a grandmother, and the oldest woman in this office by 15 years.

Yesterday she walked in with a T shirt that had a picture of Mr. Magoo on the back. On it was printed "Member of Mr. Magoo's Drinking Team." She must have got it in a rag shop. A few days ago she sat at her desk with a paper sack over her head. Friday she wore pedal pushers made out of mattress ticking.

What shall we do about this batty old dame?—Memphis Belles.

Dear Belles: Six-year-old boys stand on their heads and turn handspirings to attract attention. This poor old dear isn't up to such antics so she wears gag shirts. Perhaps if you gals gave this woman a little recognition that inferiority complex. Include her in your conversation and coffee breaks. It could do a world of good.

Mrs. Tuveson Gives Report On Meeting

A report of the general meeting of the women of the church held earlier in the month, was given by Mrs. Tuveson, at the regular monthly meeting of the Dorcas Circle of the Zion Lutheran church, held in October at the home of Mrs. Kasten.

It was decided at the meeting to continue on with the dinners for the college students as had been done last year. It was explained that Baker has volunteered financial help with the project as several students concerned are from that area.

India and New Guinea missions chairman, explained the need there for 1960 would be blankets. Missionary education chairman again called attention to the reading list that had been circulated, and told of books available to the group. The Thanks-offering chairman reported that $95 had been collected when the thank offering boxes were called in.

Junior Lutherans chairman told of meeting with the youngsters every other Saturday afternoon, at which time a study of the Bible is being conducted. Scrolls had been made depicting early books.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

WBA Members Report Drive A Success

Woman's Benefit Association held a regular business meeting Monday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall, with Mrs. Bill Livingston, vice-president, presiding in the absence of Mrs. W. E. Garrett.

Mrs. Livingston opened the meeting with the United States salutation to the prayer and flag. She heard reports from her officers and committee members.

A letter from Frank Bennett, president of the Eastern Oregon College, was read by the recording secretary, Mrs. James Ingerson, thanking the local association for supporting the scholarship fund for a worthy student for another year.

Mrs. Leo Hansen, State Field director, reported the membership drive activity a success, and also gave a report on the junior activities. Twenty-four members attended the Halloween party held at the Knights of Pythias hall. Two rooms were used with age grouping in the rooms. Five mothers assisted with games and treats and a great time was reported by the kiddies who attended.

Plans are being arranged for another meeting of the juniors soon.

Mrs. Hansen also reported on the TB seals and reported five or six ladies were at her home Oct. 30, to stuff envelopes and seal them ready for mailing.

At the close of the meeting, those present went to the home of Mrs. Hansen and finished that phase of the TB seals project. Those present were served cake, ice cream and coffee by Mrs. Hansen before departing for their homes. Vivian Engle received the attendance award.

The election of officers will be the first meeting in December. The annual Christmas program is also being arranged.

Wednesday, members of the Rebekah lodge went to Summerville for the convention. A workshop day was held.

Little Leo Anderson had his appendix removed Thursday night. He is in the Grande Ronde hospital.

Each of the classrooms of the Cove grade school had a Halloween party.

Who's calling the signals?

You are. When it comes to future happiness of your children, they must depend on you to guide them, to help them grow up straight and strong. And most of all, to give them a peaceful world to grow up in.

What can you do about peace? Keep in mind that peace costs money. Money for military and industrial strength. Money for science and education. Any money saved by individuals—like you—to keep our economy healthy.

You can help pay America's "peace bills." How? By buying U.S. Savings Bonds. Your Bond money not only brings you a good return; it helps strengthen America's Peace Power, too.

Are you buying as many Bonds as you might?

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS NOW PAY 3 3/4% INTEREST Three big, new cash benefits make the Bonds you buy and the Bonds you already own better than ever:

1. All Series E and H Bonds bought on or after June 1, 1959 now earn 3 3/4% interest when held to maturity. 2. Your older Bonds will also pay more—an extra 1/4%, from June 1 on, if you hold them to maturity. 3. All Series E Bonds, old or new, now carry an automatic extension privilege; they'll keep paying liberal interest for as long as 10 years beyond maturity.
