

BATTLE IN SMOKER

Gene Duncan, left, and Don Thompson, both of Baker, will be on tonight's card at the College Coliseum in the Intercollegiate Knight's annual smoker. Duncan will battle Jim Neese and Thompson tangles with Lyn Trembley. The card gets underway at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

W. Towel Gives Win To 'Love'

NEW YORK (UPI) — South African Willie Towel claimed today it was "brotherly love" that changed a probable knockout defeat to a sensational first American victory Friday, with Lynn Matthews from the City of Brotherly Love, Philadelphia.

"I'm certain that the presence of my brother Alan in my corner saved me from a knockout in the eighth or ninth round," said the rangy, dark-haired invader who won an upset split decision in their TV 10-round at Madison Square Garden — after being floored twice.

"In that eighth round," he said, "in spite of the two knockdowns and the beating I took, I kept thinking Alan would be in my corner to encourage me when I went there. So I kept going. And he did encourage me and I came out fighting in the ninth — instead of being floored — and won the bout."

Towel, weighing 138 1/2 pounds to Matthews' 138 1/2, made a terrific American debut in a close, sizzling fight. Matthews was favored at 9-5.

Although dancing Willie let slender, hard-hitting Matthews move forward consistently, Willie kept the 20-year-old Philadelphia out-balance with a diversified counter-attack of left jabs, left hooks and one-two punches that had the 2,500 fans standing and cheering.

Referee Elberts favored Towel on a rounds basis, 5-4-1, and judge Artie Alda agreed, 6-3-1. Judge Ray Kozak had it 5-5 on rounds, but he favored Matthews on points. The United Press International had Matthews ahead, 5-4-1.

Rooks Eke Out 7-0 Victory Over UO Frosh

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Oregon State's Rooks evened the score with the Oregon freshman team Friday afternoon, eking out a 7-0 win in the rain.

Fullback Ernie Thomsen capped a 72-yard scoring drive late in the second period going over from one yard out. Ladd Horn added the extra point.

It was a complete reversal of form from the first game in which the Ducks outscored the Rooks, 38-24.

Closest Oregon could get to scoring was OSC's 24 yard line. But they were held for downs at that point. In the third period the Ducks drove to the Rooks' 27 but again lost the ball on downs.

Oregon State threatened in the last quarter after intercepting a pass on its own 33 yard line. The Rooks drove to the Duckling 17 but lost the ball on a fumble by Thompson.

Wrestlers, Boxers Tangle In Annual College Smoker

Tag Team Tilt Featured On Program's Bill

By NEIL ANDERSEN
Observer Staff Writer

There will be grunts and groans and lots of lying leather in the College Coliseum tonight as the Intercollegiate Knights put on their annual smoker. The first live fight event of the season gets under way at 8 p.m.

In addition to 30 rounds of boxing the collegiate crew will offer two wrestling matches including a tag team tussle. The show is billed as the finest collection of bone and muscle ever offered under one roof.

The featured tag team match will see a pair of rough and ready Mountaineer gridders tangle with a relatively unknown tandem of wrestlers new to the circuit. Jim "Tiger" Neese and George "Toughy" Alverti will meet Dan "Muscles" Tucker and Dale "Shotgun" McKrola in the no holds barred event.

The other grunt and groan feature stars Carl Bellows, Vale, and Don Cole, Baker, in a speedy 150 pound match.

A pair of 130 pounders from Pendleton will open the show with three rounds in the ring. Steve Hunt and Bill Tolle will battle it out in the curtain raiser.

Joe Batty and Norm Lewis, both of La Grande will perform in the 135 pound class. Gene Holt, Pendleton, and Dave Curtis, Baker, meet in the first of two 145 pound matches. Wes Lerue, Halfway, and Bill Kaiser, La Grande, also are 145 pounders.

Dennis Gustavson, Prineville, meets Terry Simpson, Pendleton; Lyn Trembley, La Grande, meets Don Thompson, Baker; Jim Morris and Burke Gentry, both of Heppner, and Charles Serey, The Dalles, tangles with Elgin's Ted Miller in the 165 pound class.

Gene Duncan, Baker, and Jim Neese, Prineville, go in the 175 pound division.

In the heavyweight class, Walt Wolf, Steadfield, meets Chuck Berry, La Grande, in the final boxing event.

The public is invited to attend the smoker and cheer their favorites on to victory. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for students and 25 cents for children under six. Money from the smoker is used to finance service projects by the Knights.

Crucial Games Face League Leading 49'ers, New York

United Press International
The San Francisco Forty-Niners and Baltimore Colts may settle the National Football League's Western Division race Sunday at Baltimore before a sellout crowd of 57,537. The Colts, who have lost only two of their last 12 home games, are favored by seven points.

San Francisco (6-2) leads second-place Baltimore (5-3) by a game. If the Forty-Niners win, they will lead the Colts by two games with three to play and will be well on their way to their first division title.

A triumph at Baltimore will assure the Forty-Niners of starting their final two-game home stand with a one-game lead even if they lose their last road game to the Browns at Cleveland Nov. 29.

If the Colts win, they will tie for the lead and set up a wild scramble which might also give the Chicago Bears (4-4) a shot at the western crown. The Colts need the game badly because they play the unpredictable Rams at home before ending their regular season with games at San Francisco and Los Angeles, where they have won once in 14 tries.

Eastern Race Tight
The Bears are five-point choices to whip the Lions (2-5-1) at Detroit and will be only a game out of first place if they win and Baltimore whips San Francisco. Tangles are even tighter at the top of the Eastern race, where cold weather will increase the football's strange bounces. The Cleveland Browns and New York Giants, tied for the lead with 6-2 records, and the Philadelphia Eagles 5-3, a game behind, are favored over rivals who are dedicated to "spoiler" roles.

Cleveland entertains the Pittsburgh Steelers (3-4-1) and is favored by nine points. New York, with quarterbacks Charley Conerly and George Shaw nursing injuries, is favored over the Chicago Cardinals 2-6 by 5 1/2 points.

At Minneapolis, the Eagles are favored over the visiting Rams (2-6) by 3 1/2.

The Packers (4-3) are favored over the Washington Redskins (3-5) by four points at Green Bay in the other game.

Face Top Passer
Coach Red Hickey's Forty-Niners came east with a two-game lead but lost half of it last Sunday when they bowed to the Bears, 14-3. Now they face the league's top touchdown passer in John Unitas. The Baltimore star has thrown 22 scoring passes in eight games this year and appears almost certain to crack the NFL season mark of 28 set by Sid Luckman in 1943.
