

QUOTES IN THE NEWS

United Press International

CHICAGO — Prohibition era gangster Roger Touhy, paroled after a quarter of a century behind bars for a 1933 kidnaping, "It's a beautiful day — a great day. The radio announcement I heard last night that I was to be released today was the best news I've had in 26 years."

WASHINGTON — Actress Lauren Bacall, brusquely dismissing the subject when asked by a reporter about any romance: "That's pretty private stuff. I don't ask you about yours."

SAN FRANCISCO — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.), defending health, education and welfare secretary Arthur Flemming's warning about possibly contaminated cranberries: "If any man in his job disregards a cancer warning, his position could be destroyed and should be."
