Masterminds Plan Annual Grid Dinner

"Buck" Bailey color'ul coach of the Washington State University baseball teams will be the featured speaker at the Blue Mountain Masterminds 12th annual football dinner.

Guests of honor for the meal to be held in Hoke Hall on the Eastern Oregon College campus will be the members of the La Grande High School and EOC football teams. A large turnout is expected to be on hand to honor the gridder and to hear the veteran diamond center expound as only he can. Bailey is the subject of many anecdotes and a master story teller. The most famous story about the legendary Bailey concerns the time he "kicked the water bucket" at the University of Oregon.

The Cougar mentor who frequently tips over bat racks and water buckets gave the water bucket a boot only to find that some wag had put cement in the bottom and covered it with water. Tickets for the dinner that begins at 6 p.m. are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office in the Sacajawea Hotel for $3. The price includes admission for the purchaser and a member of either football team.

Bill Thomas will be master of ceremonies for the dinner and will introduce Bailey along with the coaches of the two teams. Arch Dunsmoor, Eastern Oregon Col-

The New York Knickerbockers may have devised a system to stop Wilt Chamberlain.

Using a collapsible defense on Philadelphia's freshman phenom, the Knicks managed to beat the Warriors for the first time this season, 127-126, on Kenny Sears jump shot at the final buzzer Sunday.

Chamberlain, although he scored 33 points, was double and triple-teamed and his scoring was off the pace he set in his earlier games.

The seven-foot, one-inch new-comer, however, almost repeated the one-point victory Philadelphia enjoyed over New York Saturday night when he scored on a tip-in with 47 seconds to go. This time he tapped in what appeared to be the winning basket with five seconds to go to give the Warriors a 126-125 lead. But Sears nullified it with the clincher.

Wiltie Naults topped Knick scorers with 39 points in a game they seemingly had won with a 116-109 lead and 6:28 to go in the contest.

In the only other National Basketball Assn. action, the Boston Celtics, led by Bill Sharman's 29 points, downed the injury-riddled Minneapolis Lakers, 109-93.

COLTS KEEP TIE

Forty-Niners Upset Browns; New York Ups Lead In East

By EARL WRIGHT
UPI Staff Writer

The other 3 New York Giants may join Charley Conerly in riding around in new automobiles.

The $25,000 bevy of gifts Conerly received Sunday at Yankee Stadium included two brand new autos. The 38-year-old quarterback immediately went into high gear against one of his favorite targets, the Washington Redskins.

Conerly has a little Choctaw Indian blood in him. Maybe it helps make him particularly effective against the Redskins. Anyway, he threw two touchdown passes to Bob Schmeitler, one to Kyle Rote and set up a scoring run by Alex Webster and a Pat Summerall field goal.

Conerly, who has thrown 23 of his 156 National Football League touchdown passes against the Redskins, enjoyed his spree in the first 29 minutes. Then he sat down to rest for a dance in his honor while the Giants whizzed to a 45-14 triumph that clinched at least a tie for the Eastern Division title.

Two Games in Front
The Giants now are two games in front with two to play. It's a virtual certainty each of them can count on at least a $5,500 slice of championship game money and a new car if they want to match Conerly on the highway.

New York got sterling help from the San Francisco Forty-Niners, also giving their Western title hopes a huge boost, scored three times in less than seven minutes to edge the Browns at Cleveland, 21-20. The Steelers, with Bobby Layne throwing four touchdown passes, whipped the Philadelphia Eagles at Pittsburgh, 31-0.

The Browns and Eagles started the day only a game behind the

GATOR BOWL CONTENDERS

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Alabama and Miami of Florida are in contention for a Gator Bowl bid, according to the 24-man selection committee for the New Year's Day football classic.

The two schools were added to the list of possibles after Miami beat South Carolina, 26-6 last Friday night, and Alabama whipped Georgia Tech, 9-6 on Saturday. Miami has a 4-3 mark and Alabama is 4-1-2.

The victory gave Boston a two game lead over Philadelphia in the Eastern Division.

as nation's top passer and leader in total offense.

Southern California and Washington monopolized the first team by landing three men apiece on it. Troy's brothers, McKeever, Martin the end and Mike the guard, nailed down starting spots with no strain while Dan Ficca earned a tackle spot.

Gegner at Tackle
Kurt Gegner, who came to Seattle as a displaced person from Germany and became a star lineman at Washington, won the other tackle job while teammate Chuck Allen was named to a guard post.

The first team backfield includes Keith Lincoln, Washington State's fine triple threat, Dick Bass who did some fine ball carrying for College of the Pacific despite a bad leg and Ray Smith, UCLA's blasting fullback.

Another Bruin making the first team was center Harry Baldwin, who narrowly outpolled Bob Peterson of Oregon. Each griddier received eight first team votes but Baldwin held a 58-55 edge in points. These were awarded on a basis of five for a first team vote and three for a second.

Burford in A Breeze
Chris Burford, Stanford's mighty end, breezed onto the first team as generally expected.

Southern California grabbed four positions on the second unit. Ron Mix and Garry Fineran both won tackle assignments while Jerry Traynham was named to a halfback spot. Al Bainsavage, the fourth Trojan, teamed up with Washington State's Bill Berry at guard.

Norman easily took the quarterback job in the second eleven which is rounded out by Willie West of Oregon, George Fleming of Washington and Traynham.

The rest of this lineup features Gail Cogdill of Washington State and Marv Luster of UCLA on the ends.

Schloriedt won the Back of the Year award. Mike McKeever was named Lineman of the Year, and Jim Owens, whose Washington Huskies meet Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl, took the Coach of the Year honors.
