COYOTE GUARDS RUIN EOC WITH 45 POINT EFFORT

A pair of dead-eyed guards stepped Eastern Oregon College's one game win streak by dumping in 45 points in the College of Idaho's 72-55 victory in the coliseum last night.

Daryl Hill paced the Coyotes to a 33 1/2 half time margin scoring 16 of the Caldwell capers first 23 points. Tiny Ted Talbot took over in the second half and wound up as the night's top scorer with 23 as the Coyotes made their 1959 hoop debut a successful one.

The Coyotes had a little too much experience, ran a little faster and hit the basket more frequently after grabbing a 6-0 lead in the opening minutes of the contest.

College of Idaho hit for 29 field goals to only 21 for the Mounties. From the charity stripe both clubs were about even. EOC hit only 13 of 29 gift shots while the Coyotes were sinking 14 of 26.

Frank Chase was the only Mountie that could hit the basket with any degree of accuracy as he paced the locals efforts with 18 points. Pasco Armitola hit for 11 and amazing Bill McCadden matched Tuesday night's effort with 10. Talbot and Hill were the whole show for the Coyotes. In addition to their scoring the two tiny (Hill is 5-10, Talbot 5-8) guards hawked the ball all over the floor, did a bit of fancy dribbling and passing and kept C-I out of danger once they went ahead.

Chase, Mel Holmes and Ron Hunt hit field goals to give EOC a six point lead before the Coyotes could count. Hill had six points when he tied the score at 8-8 with a jump shot from in front. Seconds later he added a free throw to put the Coyotes in a lead they never gave up.

EOC stayed within range of the visitors until after the intermission break. Then, with Talbot warming up his shooting eye, C-I slowly widened the gap. Twice in the last 10 minutes the local team trailed by as much as 24 points. With the score 68-44 Armitola hit a field goal. Chase threw in five points and McCadden got a tip in and that's as close as the Mounties could come.

The Mountie defense was a little lax in their efforts to control Hill and Talbot. Frequently the two speedsters would come straight down the floor to the foul line or beyond before they were picked up by the defensive men. The radar eyed guards didn't miss once they got close to the hoop.

In the preliminary game the College of Idaho JV's tipped the Mounty squad, 69-59. Danny Ayers hit 23 points for the Coyotes while Bob Meyers tallied 18 for the locals. Friday and Saturday nights this week, Eastern Oregon will play host to the touring University of Nevada squad at the Coliseum.

Diamond Veteran Turns To Links For New Career

PALM DESERT, Calif. (UPI)—Jerry Priddy, a veteran of 13 years as a major league baseball player, today announced he had turned golf professional.

The 40-year-old athlete said he would make his debut as a golf pro in the $44,500 Los Angeles Open tournament starting Jan. 2 and would represent Eldorado Country Club at Palm Desert on the PGA circuit.

Alex Olmedo Inks Pro Tennis Pact

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Davis Cup star Alex Olmedo, the Peruvian who helped the United States regain the world's amateur title in 1938, today held a professional contract that could earn him nearly $100,000.

Olmedo took time out from his classes at University of Southern California to sign a contract Tuesday with tennis promoter Jack Kramer which guarantees him a minimum of $35,000. But Kramer expects the dark-haired Latin star to make much more than that.

Jack Twyman Carries Royals On Win Road

By United Press International
Jack Twyman's scoring spree have carried the Cincinnati Royals back on the road to a potential playoff berth.

Twyman, the National Basketball Assn.'s leading scorer, poured in 39 points Wednesday night to give Cincinnati a 135-118 victory over the New York Knickerbockers and move the Royals within a game of third place Minneapolis in the Western Division.

Syracuse won its first game from St. Louis this season by beating the Hawks, 130-121, in the nightcap of a Syracuse double-header.

Cincinnati, racking up its highest-ever total in NBA competition, twice had to overcome huge New York leads before winning the game.

Twyman led a surge in which the Royals scored 17 points to one for New York, winding up the second period with a 98-91 lead. Richie Guerin was high man for the Knicks with 29 points. Syracuse gained only its third triumph in two seasons against St. Louis as John Kerr scored 16 points in the first period to give the Nats a lead they never lost. Hal Greer chipped in with 29 points, the Syracuse high for the game. Cliff Hagan tallied 37 for St. Louis.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gov. Nelson Rockefeller will be the main speaker at the annual banquet of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. at the Hotel Astor Jan. 31.

Joe Brown Gets Nod With TKO

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—"That kid," Joe Brown said idly, "I'll fight him again tomorrow and beat him easier."

Thus he dismissed British brawler Dave Charnley, the British Empire champion who failed to come out for the sixth round Wednesday night in his effort to wrest away Brown's world light-weight championship.

It was a two-inch gash over the right eye which put Charnley out of action with his sixth loss in 46 pro fights, but there was a difference of opinion as to how he got the cut.

"It was an unintentional butt," Charnley's manager, ruddy faced Arthur Boggia, said.

Says Left Did Damage
But Brown countered, "but, nothing. I hit him with a left and then a right, and I cut him with the left. It was as good an over-hand left as I ever threw."

The victory was Brown's sixth knockout win in eight defenses of the title he won three years ago from Wallace "Bud" Smith. And Brown thought it was one of his easiest.

"I'd give him a rematch," he said, "but it's up to my manager (Lou Viscusi) to make the matches. I'll fight Charnley tomorrow, anywhere, even London, if I can get the money out of there. Just so I get a big purse."

Midwest Grabs Four Berths On Coaches All-American

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Midwest dominates the 1959 United Press International All-America football team announced today although Billy Cannon ran away with individual honors.

Louisiana State's star halfback received a total of 3,948 points in the nation-wide balloting by 359 sports writers and broadcasters, the largest number ever to vote for a UPI All-America team. Cannon's showing was the second strongest in the history of the voting, being exceeded only by the 3,269 points which Leon Hart, Notre Dame end, received in 1959.

Selected with Cannon as the finest collegiate players in the land were:

Ends — Monty Stickles, Notre Dame and Bill Carpenter, Army.
Tackles — Dan Lapphear, Wisconsin and Don Floyd, Texas Christian.
Guards — Roger Davis, Syracuse and Bill Burrell, Illinois.
Center — Max Baughan, Georgia Tech.
Quarterback — Richie Lucas, Penn State.
Halfbacks — Cannon and Ron Burton, Northwestern.
Fullback — Charles Flowers, Mississippi.

Midwest Gets Four Berths
Stickles, Lapphear, Burrell and Burton gave the Midwest four berths on the mythical eleven. There were three players each from the South and East and one from the Southwest. Baughan and Flowers, in addition to Cannon are from the South while Davis, Carpenter and Lucas are from the East and Floyd from the Southwest. Geographically, that left the Fat West, Rocky Mountain and Midlands areas without representation on the dream team.

Cannon is the only repeater from UPI's 1958 All-America team. He was one of two juniors on that team, the other being Bob White of Ohio State. White was injured most of the past season and received only 201 points, which put him well down on the honorable mention list.

All of the 1959 All-Americans are seniors and all except Carpenter, the lonely end who must stay in military service, are expected to be the most sought after players by the professional football leagues.

Fast And Heavy Line

The linemen are all fast and heavy. The line averages 219 pounds. Davis is the heaviest—228 pounds; Burrell and Carpenter the lightest at 210. The backfield averages 194 pounds, with Cannon the bulkiest at 208.

There was only one close contest for a first team berth. That was for the center spot where Baughan beat out Jackie Burkett of Auburn by 37 points.

Lapphear led the linemen in the balloting with 2,110 points, 39 more than Davis received.

Syracuse, the nation's No. 1 team in the ratings by the United Press International Board of Coaches, placed a man on each of the first three teams. Ernie Davis won a backfield berth on the second team and Gerhard Schwedes was voted into the third
