Murray, Williams Wed In Local Church

Miss Lois Lorette Murray, daughter of Mrs. Fred Murray, La Grande, became the bride of Franklin Howard Williams, son of Mrs. Percy Williams, Atlanta, Ga., during a double ring ceremony Nov. 21.

The Rev. Louis M. Samson performed the rites in the First Presbyterian Church of La Grande. Two baskets of fall shades of pom pom chrysanthemums and oak leaves decorated the church.

Mrs. Jack Vedder was the organist and Howard Anderson, soloist, singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Thomas Murray, Medical Springs. Her gown was floor length, imported French Chantilly lace with chapel train. Handmade roses adorned the back of the gown. The sash and necktie is embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. Her veil was French illusion fabric, and a cap of seed pearls and sequins with scallops and drop pearls. She also had a lucky half penny in her slipper, this was given her by a friend in Cambridge, England. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white and yellow roses.

Mrs. Lowell Chandler, Spokane, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of taffeta, moss green with embroidered trim. She carried an oval shaped bouquet of fall shades of chrysanthemums and oak leaves.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Kronquist, Oswego, and Miss Dorothy Rothe, Portland. They were dressed like the matron except their dresses were copper colored. They carried bouquets adorned the matron of honor.

The reception was held in the church parlor, also decorated with fall flowers. Dick Lyman, Elgin, played background music during the reception.

Mrs. Raymond Weber, Amityville, N. Y., sister of the groom, served the wedding cake. Mrs. A. B. Olson poured coffee, and Mrs. William Roche served at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Ed Brog had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Howard Fuhrman, both of Portland, were in charge of gifts.

The bride chose for her traveling a brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of a white orchid. The couple honeymooned at Lake Tahoe.

The newlyweds are now at home at the Stilwell apartments in La Grande. The bride is a graduate of La Grande High School and attended Eastern Oregon College. She now works in the Social Security Administration office. The groom attended school in Bellmore, N.Y., prior to entering the Navy. He is now stationed here as a Navy recruit.

ANN LANDERS

'All American Boy' Stands By Patiently In Time Of Need

Dear Ann: When I was 18, I went steady for one year with a fellow who was considered by everyone "The All-American Boy." He treated me like a princess, was always the perfect gentleman and I found him to be a man of high quality and good character.

I broke up with Greg when I fell for a handsome guy in college. My sizzling romance lasted six months—then I learned my lesson—was stringing two other girls and professing his undying love for all of us. I cried on Greg's shoulder, but we didn't establish connections.

Now I'm 23, and after having gone with several fellows I just broke up with Ken who I thought was "the real thing." (He tried to make me over to suit his mother and sister and it didn't work.) For the 10th time I borrowed Greg's shoulder and now I wonder if he isn't the man I love.

He's stood patiently by, always ready to give me moral support when I needed it. Never once did he say "I told you so."

My heart doesn't jump at the sight of him, but I respect and admire Greg tremendously. He gives me strength and confidence. I trust him implicitly and feel that he's the kindest and straightest person I know. Is this love?

Dear Barbara: Yes—and it's the best kind, too. Don't let him get away.

This is a good time of year to warn: beware of bargains. Buy only fashions that you know you'll wear.

56th Annual World Mission Appeal Begins Locally

The 56th Annual World Mission Appeal, sponsored by the La Grande and Cove Seventh-Day Adventist churches opens this week with solicitation of business houses and house-to-house calls accompanied by Christmas Carolers.

Leading the volunteer workers participating in the (four-week) city-wide drive is Leonard Spears Sr., church home missions director. The goal here is $1,125.

Funds will go toward extending welfare, disaster aid, and educational services at home as well as widespread medical, welfare, and educational ministry in 185 lands abroad.

On a world basis, Volunteer Adventist workers in 1958 gave 6,366,054 hours in welfare services to 6,296,717 persons. More than $1,400,000 in cash, some 5,000,000 articles of clothing, and 2,449,796 food baskets were contributed in a relief program conservatively valued at $26,278,820. Approximately 50 per cent of this aid was given in North America.

Seventh-day Adventists themselves contributed a large amount last year toward the support of their world church program, in addition to welfare activities.
