Peck, who had future commitments, didn't like the idea of a rewritten script. It figured Peck couldn't help but come off second best with Marilyn's role being fattened by her own husband.

Peck Gave Up

Then, too, la Monroe special.

They all had one compensation. The picture was a hit. Producer Jerry Wald, who admits Marilyn's new film will be at least a month late in starting, says, "she is not temperamental. She's the most cooperative girl I ever worked with."

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Marilyn Monree proved today she still has the capacity for setting Movieland on its ear. This time it is an uproar over a leading man for her new movie.

The blonde glamour girl arrived here more than a month ago to co-star with Gresory Peck in a film modestly titled "The Billionaire," since changed to "Let's Make Love."

She was accompanied by hussian to the start of the hilt. Stars Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon, who worked with her Stars Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon, who worked with her in "Some Like It Hot," swear they will never appear with her again. Director Billy Wilder, a good-natured little man, was dis-traught throughout the active traught throughout the picture. They all had one compensation.

Now rumor has it Marilyn may back out of the project altogether unless a co-star is found soon.
