ANGLING REPORT
Steelhead angling on the Columbia River at McNary is slow to fair for bank anglers using worms. Boat angling is good to excellent with fluorescent red flatfish producing the best catches. The Columbia River in the Boardman area has been slow. Steelhead angling on the Umatilla River is poor because of low water.

UP Junior Old Timers Will Spread Yule Cheer

The Union Pacific Junior Old Timers tonight will enact the role of Santa Claus with a "real live one" in addition to themselves distributing Christmas sacks to passengers aboard the 6:30 streamliner.

The group and old Santa will board the train when it stops at the local depot and go through the train, greeting all the people. The local group is the only such organization, as far as it is known, along the Union Pacific line, to perform this role during the Christmas period.

Jewelry Stores Will Be Closed Saturday

Three of La Grande's jewelry stores will be closed Saturday as well as Christmas day, it was announced yesterday. They will open as usual on Monday morning.

They are Gerards, Laurence's, and Peare.

RIDES THREE WINNERS

Steelhead angling on the John Day River has been good below Clarno and only fair above Twickenham. No steelhead catches have reported from the Walla Walla River. Steelhead success remains spotty on the Lower Grande Ronde and the lower Imnaha Rivers. Best success has been on the Imnaha below the mouth of Cow Creek. Steelhead success remains fair to good in the Snake River below the mouth of Pine Creek. The Bridge Creek area and Baker controlled elk hunts are slower. Elk have remained high and scattered and very little snow is on the ground. Waterfowl hunting is slow with milder weather but fair to good during foggy days. Many ducks and geese are using Cold Springs and McKay reservoirs.

We will close at 6 P.M. Christmas Eve to allow our employees to be at home with their families... Closed Christmas Day. Prices in this Ad are effective through Sunday, Dec. 27.
