Church Circle Makes Capes For Program

The Christmas meeting of the Galloway chapter of the Nazarene Foreign Missionary Society was at the home of Mrs. Ed. Alexander.

Mrs. Lawrence Able presided over the business session, during which time, membership cards were signed.

The monthly emphasis and devotion was a brief study of "Cassiopea," home of retired missionaries of the Church of Nazarene. It is a small community of separate cottages for these elderly "soldiers of the Cross" located in Southern California. Mrs. Alexander gave this formative devotion.

Prayer was requested for new missionaries who are spending their first Christmas away from home and loved ones.

Capes for the junior choir were made and worn for the angel chorus.

After dismissal the hostess served refreshments to Mesdames Leon Able, Dee Quesinberry, Roy Bechtel, Wm. G. Blakeney, Everett Rhoten, Philip Martin, Bill Baca, Orval Wilcox, Don Hasse, Lawrence Able, and Don Hanson.

Christian Church To Honor Students
This Sunday the local First Christian Church will honor the youth from their church who are enrolled in various colleges and universities. This special service is set in third observance of Student Recognition Sunday. During the 11 a.m. worship service, four college youths will participate. These are: Jim Epley, who will give the Call To Worship, Jerry Price — will lead the responsive Reading, Ruth Elmer will offer the morning prayer, and Judy Clark, who will read the Scripture.

The pastor, Wallace N. Hastings, will speak on "The Long Look." There are 28 young people from First Christian who are enrolled in nine different institutions of higher education.

Presbyterians Set Coming Activities
"Nonconformity" is the title of the sermon that the Rev. Louis M. Samson will deliver at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. The choir will sing the anthem "Sing Ye Now Thy Praise" by Tschesnokoff. Mrs. Jack Vedder will play "Pastorale" by Handel as the organ offertory.

Friendly Club will hold its monthly potluck dinner at the church Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. with Mr. and Mrs. Al Peppen and Mr. and Mrs. Don Gaily as hosts. Since this is the Christmas party, each person attending is asked to bring a gift.

Junior High Fellowship will hold a New Year's Eve watch party at the church beginning at 9 p.m.
