N. Powder Cub Scouts Make Money Selling Yule Trees

NORTH POWDER (Special) — North Powder Cub Scouts realized some Christmas money when a group of them, directed by George Geils, Bill Lewis, Gordon Gorham and Wilbur Osterloh, sold Christmas trees.

The sixth grade at the North Powder Grade School gave a going away party for Tommy Huddleston. Tommy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Huddleston, have moved to Portland.

Mrs. Howard Stains, Sumas, Wash., arrived here last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Lois M. Johnson, who is in the St. Elizabeth Hospital in Baker with a broken hip. Mrs. Stains is staying with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson, until after Christmas. Her husband joined his wife here for Christmas.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks idled for the most part in generally routine turnover today.

Ampex, a big loser Monday, rose more than 3 in the early trading apparently on the statement of its president that General Electric's new thermoplastic method of recording sound pictures would supplement rather than replace the magnetic tape process.

Ampex reacted sharply to the GE announcement Thursday and again Monday, dropping more than 18 points.

Other electronics continued under pressure with losses running to more than 3 in Texas Instruments and 1 or more in Collins Radio and Motorola.

Brokers attributed the list's general drifting to the deadlocked steel wage dispute. However, some issues found support, including Polaroid with a gain of around 3, and Firestone which rose more than a point.

U.S. Steel firmed in the first hour. Bethlehem and Youngstown were unchanged. Republic off a half. American Motors firmed in the autos where Ford, Chrysler, and General Motors eased.

Russ Expedition Returns To Base

CHRISTCHURCH, N. Z. (UPI) —The Russians who reached the South Pole SEaturday plan to return to their base on the Indian Ocean without trying to complete a crossing of Antaretica, it was reported today.

The Soviet party leaves the U. S. base at the Pole tonight or early Tuesday.

The Russians plan a fast return trip, apparently hoping to cover the 1,670-mile distance in about two weeks so as to reach their base while an expected ship is there. It took them more than three months to reach the Pole.

Farming Population Trend In Decrease

WASHINGTON (UPI) — You can't keep 'em down on the farm.

The Census Bureau reported Sunday that only one in eight Americans now lives on a farm compared with one in six a decade ago.

During the last 10 years, the farm population has declined by 3,900,000, a drop of more than 15 per cent.

OBITS

OSHKOSH, Wisconsin (UPI) — H. Frederick Willkie, 69, brother of the late Wendell Willkie, Republican candidate for president in 1940, died Monday at Alexian Brothers Home, where he had been hospitalized for six years.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Peter T. Tatanis, 75, founder and former publisher of the Greek-language newspaper the National Herald, died Sunday at his home.
