County Art Guild Members Hear Report Of Festival

Union County Art Guild held their June meeting recently with the President, Adele Voetberg, presiding.

Since the Union County Art Guild is interested in helping the forthcoming June 26-30 Indian Festival of Arts, Catherine Snider gave the members present some interesting particulars about this event, including the mention of some nationally known artists that are to be here such as Te Ata, a dramatist and singer from Boston, Mass.; Louis Ballard, a pianist of Tulsa, Okla.; Mr. Cochran, painter from Western Oregon, and others.

At the exhibit at the large Saejawea ballroom will be ceramics, sculpture, paintings, leather work, basketry, etc. both ancient and modern. All the arts will be represented. This is the first time for this sort of thing on a wide national basis and there has been a fine response on the part of many Indian individuals.

Tickets will be $2.50, which will include both the exhibit and the evening entertainment at EOC. The returns from the sale of tickets and the booklet is to go into a fund for Indian awards, to encourage outstanding work in any of various fields.

Florence Miller and Winnifred Oesterling gave a short review of Dr. Voss's lecture to the AA, UW and Art Guild members, May 26. Some slides seen were described depicting the latest in furniture styles, as well as the steps taken to becoming an artist or creative craftsman in Denmark.

Painting brought by some of the members were viewed and commented upon. One member is now painting the nude, a prerequisite to a well rounded and experienced painter.

Episcopal Plans For Bazaar

The June business meeting of the St. Peter's Episcopal Guild was presided over by Mrs. Roy Martin, who led the group in the opening prayers.

Mrs. Grace Thew, devotional chairman, read and discussed the meditation for the day, "The Sacredness of Work," taken from the Episcopal Daily Meditation booklet, "Forward."

Plans for the fall bazaar were discussed and the summer project for the members will be the making of items for the bazaar and tea. Mrs. Fred Sommer will be chairman of the committee planning the tea.

A reception, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, on their 50th wedding anniversary will be held in the St. Peter's Episcopal Church parish hall, on Sunday afternoon, from 2 to 5. All members of the Parish, and friends of the honored couple, are invited to attend. The St. Ann's Guild members are in charge of the arrangements.

The final meeting of the summer will be held on June 15, at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Kopp in Cove. This will be a potluck picnic. All members are asked to bring their own table service, and a picnic dish of some kind. Tea and coffee will be furnished. Mrs. Fred Sommer and Mrs. Gilbert Barron are in charge of the plans.

The closing prayers were given by the Rev. C. A. Kopp.

Mrs. Guy Ellis, the hostess, served refreshments. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth, and centered with a large bouquet of spring and summer flowers. Mrs. Fred Sommer, and Mrs. Edith Simmons poured.

ANN LANDERS Young Mother Has Trouble With Two-Year-Old Dictator

Dear Ann: I'm a young mother who needs help. Opal is my two-year-old daughter. She's very bright for her age and pretty, too. But I can't go any place without her.

Opal has aunts and grandmothers who would be happy to stay with her any afternoon or evening, but she won't let me out of her sight. When she sees me putting on a hat or coat she screams, holds her breath, and makes such a fuss that I wind up staying at home. She seems to sense it when I have plans to go somewhere and even though I try to sneak out she catches me and spoils everything.

I haven't had an afternoon away from home in so long I'm going to lose my mind if I don't get away from the house. Please help me with this problem.—Young Mother.

Dear Young: If Opal told you to go soak your head in a rain barrel would you do it?

This two-year-old dictator has a pretty good thing going. Unless you establish yourself as the authority in the house, you're going to be in for plenty
