Hot - headed martyrs:

Despite seeming official determination to go ahead with Presi
(NATO) The U.S. and Britain dent Eisenhower's visit to Japan are telling De Gaulle that they and despite vast security arrange are anxious for close consultation ments, anxiety persists in Tokyo that some untoward event may al problems, but not at the extake place. One fear is that hotheaded demonstrators may force Secret Service men accompanying

De Gaulle, meanwhile, will and should such an event occur, issue with a vengeance.

Test at the polls: Japanese Socialist leaders claim that the majority of the Japanese people are against ratification of the U.S. - Japan treaty but they are not yet ready to take their fight against Premier Nobusuke Kishi's government. The reason: Voters may not see eye to eye with them on "other issues."

Talkfest: Western diplomats in London now expect the Geneva disarmatalks to stretch out longer than had been expected right after the summit fiasco. Although the West does not like Nikita Khrushchev's latest disarmament proposals, they contain concessions to compel the West to sit down and talk about them instead of turning them down cold.

The United States and Britain will politely turn down French President Charles de Gaulle's re-grandchildren. newed call for a three - power LEGAL NOTICE

Political football:

The U.S. U2 spy planes based at Atsugi Naval Air Station in lapan have become a big political football and both foreign and Jap anese reporters have tried to see the plane. But, it was learned. not even the two top Navy ad-mirals in Japan have clearance to enter the restricted area where the planes are kept.
