TEN DEPOT STREET

For music this week, Tyler Brooks is playing on Tuesday evening. Brooks, who has roots in Eastern Oregon, is a singer-songwriter who produces a blend of country and rock n roll with "a genuine sense of honesty." His influences range from the Rolling Stones to Waylon Jennings. The music starts at 8:00.

And then Thursday, July 19, the Bad Penney Pleasure Makers from New Orleans will serve up 1920's and 30's jazz and swing with a side of vaudeville. Starring Matt Bell, Joy Patterson, and locals Greg Johnson and Luke McKern, these guys are not only talented musicians, but a lot of fun. Matt and Joy used to live in Wallowa County, but have called New Orleans home for many years now. Luckily they still play for us at Ten Depot on their annual visit home. Both nights the music starts at 8:00. We have some fresh mint from the valley thanks to Peggy Weishaar, and so are featuring the famous rum drink, the Mojito, this week in the bar at Ten Depot Street.

We have some amazing fresh seafood featured this week at Ten Depot Street. Our Blue Plate special this week features fresh Oregon sole and the salmon and halibut from Alaska are also fresh this week. Fresh salmon has been scarce this summer, so we are delighted to finally have some.

Our Wine Tasting Wednesdays have been quite successful and we are pleased to feature for our next event, Seven Hills Winery on August 2. This one will be on a Thursday because that was the only day that the winery could come. We will be tasting four of their wines with food pairings with each wine. The cost is $30. Call 541-963-8766 for reservations.
