Lisa S. (Cunningham) Miller

La Grande
1956-2018

Lisa Sue Miller, 61, died June 24 at her home in La Grande. A Mass was said for her Aug. 8 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dayton, Washington. Loveland Funeral Chapel & Crematory handled the arrangements.

Lisa was born Sept. 20, 1956, in Dayton, Washington, to Leo "Butch" and Lina (Brown) Cunningham. She was baptized by Father Ralph Schwemin at St. Joseph Catholic Church, where she later received her first communion.

Growing up, Lisa was active in Camp Fire Girls and 4H. Her family traded a pet pig they couldn't eat for a Welsh Pony named Sparky. It became the love of Lisa's life. She trained and washed Sparky until it shined for the county fair.

After graduating from Dayton High School, Lisa moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado. The adventure turned out not to be a gold mine, so she came home.

Lisa married Roy Miller and they lived in Twin Falls, Idaho. They raised dachshunds and Dobermans and also made a pond for different kinds of geese and ducks.

Lisa's health deteriorated after a terrible car accident, breast cancer, kidney disease and spine disease. Her marriage was over so she moved to La Grande, where she found doctors who could help her. She lived there for many years.

Survivors include her mother, Lina; siblings, Marie Gilbreath and David Cunningham; numerous nieces and nephews; and caregiver, Brenda Miller.

She was preceded in death by her father, Leo Cunningham, and brother, James Cunningham.

Kenneth E. Lilly

La Grande
1920-2018

Kenneth E. Lilly Sr., 97, of La Grande, died Aug. 15 at Wildflower Lodge. A service will be held at 11 a.m. Sept. 8 at Willow School.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Rose, in 2009; sisters, Ossie, Alma and Oweda; brothers, William and Zack; grandson, Brent; and daughter-in-law, Verda. Memorial contributions may be made to the High School in 1938. In 1942, he was commissioned an officer in the U.S. Navy and served on various ships in the Pacific Theater during World War II. On Feb. 25, 1944, Ken married Rose Marie Lemezis at Our Lady of the Valley Catholic Church in La Grande.

After his honorable discharge from the Navy in 1946, Ken earned a bachelor's degree from Willamette University. He later attended what is now Eastern Oregon University and then attended the University of Oregon, where he earned a master's degree. Ken then began teaching in La Grande and later became a principal of several La Grande schools. He retired in 1989.

Ken belonged to the Elks Lodge, the Lions Club and the La Grande Retired Teachers Association. He enjoyed working in his yard and garden, doing crossword puzzles and taking bus tours to Nashville and elsewhere.

Survivors include his children, Kenneth Jr. and wife, Carol, of Kirkland, Washington, Rod of Portland and Andy of La Grande; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Rose, in 2009; sisters, Ossie, Alma and Oweda; brothers, William and Zack; grandson, Brent; and daughter-in-law, Verda.

Memorial contributions may be made to the

La Grande Education Foundation, P.O. Box 1463, La Grande 97850.

Cleo E. Case

La Grande

Cleo Elaine Case, 64, of La Grande, died Sept. 1 at Grande Ronde Hospital. A viewing will be held from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Sept. 6 at Loveland Funeral Chapel. A funeral service will begin at 6 p.m. Sept. 7 in the horse arena at 64066 Booth Lane, La Grande. On Sept. 8, there will be a graveside service at 10 a.m. at the Summerville Cemetery. Casual dress is preferred by the family. An obituary is forthcoming. Loveland Funeral Chapel & Crematory is handling the arrangements.

Vicki D. Hill-Stokke

La Grande
1937-2018

Vicki D. Hill-Stokke, 81, of La Grande, died Aug. 29 at a local care facility from complications from Alzheimer's. A graveside service will be held at 10 a.m. Sept. 8 at Grandview Cemetery, followed by a reception at George and Vanessa's residence, 62097 Chandler Loop, La Grande.

Vicki was born June 11, 1937, in Kellogg, Idaho, to Maxine and Otto Hill. She graduated from Kellogg

High School in 1955. In March 1956, Vicki married Howard G. Schultz, and they had two daughters: Vanessa and Sharon. In 1965 they moved to Spokane Valley, and in 1979 Vicki and Howard divorced. In April 1980, Vicki married Donald Stokke. They moved to La Grande in 1997 to be closer to her daughters and grandchildren.

Vicki was a stay-at-home mom while her girls were growing up and later worked for several years as a medical receptionist. Her favorite hobby was antiquing, and she always joked that buying and selling glassware was her business. Vicki loved playing bridge, reading and going camping with family and friends. Watching her children and grandchildren play and spending time with them brought her great joy. She and Don spent many years traveling to La Grande and Michigan to visit their kids and grandkids.

Vicki and Don met through bowling, which she loved. She was one of the first to join the women's bowling leagues in La Grande's new bowling alley, where she spent happy years bowling until it closed. According to her daughter Vanessa, Vicki would smile when she drove her past the new bowling alley being built in town.

A true animal lover, Vicki always had a dog in her life. Corgi was her favorite breed, and she had three of them over the years. Vicki and Don's gravestone have a corgi on it.

Survivors include her daughters, Vanessa Hagedorn and husband, George, of La Grande, and Sharon Schultz of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; brother and sister-in-law, Spike and Toni Hill of Kellogg, Idaho; and four grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Don Stokke in 2004; parents, Maxine and Otto Hill; and aunt and close friend, Ruthie Napier.

Memorial contributions may be made to the La Grande Tiger Booster Club, P.O. Box 2991, La Grande 97850, or the Alzheimer's Association, 1650 NW Naito Parkway, Portland 97209.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.lovelandfuneralchapel.com.

Loren "Bill" White

La Grande

Loren "Bill" White, 78, of La Grande, died Aug. 25 at home. A memorial service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 8 at the Union Methodist Church. There will be a gathering after the service at the EOLS Clubhouse, 760 E. Delta, Union. Loveland Funeral Chapel & Crematory is handling the arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to the Doernbecher Foundation, Mail Stop 45, P.O. Box 4000, Portland 97208, or online at www.OnwardOHSU.org.
