GOLFER

Ames Police Cmdr. Geoff Huff said homicides are rare in the city, and it's "very troubling for something like this to happen in broad daylight."

It's the second fatal stabbing of a female college student in Iowa in recent months. An immigrant from Mexico is charged in the July slaying of University of Iowa student Mollie Tibbetts, who vanished while out for a run in the town of Brooklyn.

Police were called to Coldwater Golf Links around 10:20 a.m. Monday to investigate a possible missing player after golfers found her bag and no one around it. Officers found Barquin's body with several stab wounds to her upper torso, head and neck, according to the complaint filed Tuesday against Richards.

A police dog tracked Barquin's scent to a homeless encampment near the course where Richards had been living in a tent, the complaint said. Officers found Richards with several scratches on his face consistent with fighting and a deep laceration in his left hand that he tried to conceal, it said.

"What did he do to her?" an acquaintance of Richards allegedly asked officers who were searching the area.

That man told investigators Richards had said recently he had "an urge to rape and kill a woman" while they were walking near the course, the complaint said. A second acquaintance told police that Richards arrived at his nearby home Monday "disheveled and covered in blood, sand and water." He bathed and left with his clothes in a backpack.

Investigators later recovered shorts with blood stains and a knife that Richards allegedly gave to two other people after the slaving, the complaint said. Those two individuals were driving Richards out of town, but he asked them to drop him off near the camp so he could get his tent.

DUCKS

Stanford pummeled Willie Taggart's Ducks 49-7 last season when Herbert was out due to injury, and the Cardinal humiliated Mark Helfrich's final Oregon team 52-27 in the 2016 meeting at Autzen.

Coordinator Jim Leavitt's defense is better equipped to give Cristobal a chance for a breakthrough win over the consistent Cardinal.

"I feel like we have a lot more still in the tank," defensive end Jalen Jelks said after recording one of the Ducks' four sacks against the Spartans.

State to 29 yards rushing on 28 attempts, Oregon ranks fifth in the FBS in yards allowed per carry (1.96). "We're just really focused on Stanford and playing a great game," linebacker Troy Dye said. "Our goal is to take the Pac and win the Pac-12, so we just have to go out there and start off on a great foot and get a win."

After holding San Jose

Love rushed for 147 yards and two touchdowns on only 17 carries against Oregon last season. In Herbert's absence, Braxton Burmeister and Taylor Alie were a combined 5-for-13 passing for 33 yards with no touchdowns and two interceptions.

Burmeister is out for two weeks after undergoing a surgical procedure on his knee, which means true freshman Tyler Shough will back up Herbert.

The Ducks must run the ball better to re-balance the offense. Stanford ranks 30th in the FBS in total defense.

"We've got to do a better job of making sure we are executing better," Cristobal said. "The best part about this thing is when you go in the locker room the mood is just not content, not satisfied. You can watch tape and learn from this without having paid the price of not winning a football game."

La Grande (8-1 overall, 2-0 GOL) travels to the Sisters Tournament Saturday.

EAGLES FALL IN FIVE-SET THRILLER TO BADGERS

Joseph's Sabrina Albee led the way with 23 kills, but it wasn't enough as the Eagles dropped a five-set battle to the Powder Valley Badgers Tuesday, 25-14, 15-25, 25-13, 19-25, 15-10, in a match for first place in the Old Oregon League.

"Some of the best volleyball I have seen played at our level," Joseph Head Coach Jill Hite said of the match. "A lot of long rallies and both teams really giving everything they had."

Emma Hite turned in a solid all-around performance for the Eagles with 19 digs, 10 kills, 10 assists and five aces. Camille Crenshaw had 21 digs, Madelyn Nelson added 19 digs and Albee chipped in with 10 digs.

Stats were not available for Powder Valley.

The Badgers (18-0 overall, 4-0 OOL) travel to Elgin Friday, while Joseph (11-6, 3-1) hosts both Jordan Valley and Adrian Friday.

PANTHERS ROLL PAST GRISWOLD

The Imbler Panthers coasted to a sweep over the Griswold Grizzlies in Old Oregon League play Tuesday, winning, 25-15, 25-15, 25-10.

Caysie McGinness had eight kills to lead a balanced Imbler attack. Aspen Smith and Sydney Treat both added five kills. Karrington Trover had 23 assists and nine digs, Chloe Birkmaier had 19 digs and Gracey Smith had three aces.

"Overall, (it was a) strong team effort and great win for us at home as we move through our league schedule,"Head Coach Jennifer Teeter said.

Imbler (8-5 overall, 3-1 OOL) hosts Pine Eagle Thursday. HUSKIES EARN FIRST LEAGUE WIN

The Elgin Huskies picked up their first Old Oregon League victory of the season, sweeping the Nixyaawii Golden Eagles on the road

Tuesday, 25-17, 25-13, 25-18. "Tonight the girls had a really good opportunity to play together in a fairly new rotation that is working well," Head Coach Tiana Murphey said. "They are really improving on how well they communicate and work as a true team."

Kaelin Evans had three kills and three aces for Elgin. Jayden Palmer also had three kills, and Tymra Anderson had three digs. The Huskies (3-10 overall, 1-4 OOL) host Powder Valley
