Logano's victory brings end to Ford's lengthy title drought

The Associated Press

HOMESTEAD, Florida — Ford slammed the door on NASCAR's longest championship drought when Joey Logano drove a Fusion to victory in its final race.

0 .500

Logano won Sunday at Homestead-Miami Speedway to give the American automaker its eighth drivers' title, but first since Kurt Busch in 2004. Ford also won the manufacturers' title, the first time it has won the top two prizes in NAS-CAR in a season since 1999.

Ford had two of the four entries in the championship field, one each from Team Penske and Stewart-Haas Racing, the teams it recruited to end its championship slide. The crown went to Roger Penske, a longtime Ford supporter and friend of Edsel Ford II, grandson of Henry

"Delivering the manufacturers' championship and the driver's championship, where it's been a drought for them and for Edsel," Penske said, "and all the people that have done so much at Ford, and they've staved committed with us. This is part of building a brand."

Penkse and Edsel Ford shared the championship moment in victory lane. Team Penske returned to the Ford brand in 2013 and has been the cornerstone of the blue oval groups bid to challenge Chevrolet and Toyota for tops in NASCAR.

"It means a lot to me personally to have both the drivers' and manufacturers' championship," Ford said.

"It has been since 1999 and I was there with Robert Yates and Dale Jarrett. Doing it again, 19 years later, it is absolutely indescribable to me."

Portland Oklahoma City

Ford led all three manufacturers with 19 wins in 2018, including eight by Kevin Harvick, four by Brad Keselowski, three by Logano, two by Clint Bowyer and one from Aric Almirola and Kurt Busch.

"This means so much for Ford Motor Company and all of our employees that work so hard," said Mark Rushbrook, global director for Ford Performance. "I just can't believe this right now. We have worked so hard for the last three years to build up the program and to have this 2018 season and have 19 wins, the manufacturers' championship and the drivers' champion-

"It is incredible to have the company achieve this with the help of our partners, Team Penske and Roush Yates Engines. It is incredible."

Ducks hold off late ASU rally for 31-29 win at home

By Anne M. Peterson The Associated Press

EUGENE — The Oregon Ducks made what might be quarterback Justin Herbert's final game at Autzen Stadium more of a cliffhanger than they would've liked.

Herbert threw for 262 yards and two touchdowns and Oregon held off a late rally by Arizona State to win 31-29 and knock the Sun Devils out of contention for a spot in the Pac-12 championship game.

Herbert has not said whether he will return for his final year of eligibility for the Ducks. He was asked after the game for his takeaway on how he played against the Sun

"Fortunately it doesn't fall just on my shoulders. The defense played really well," he said. "I know the feeling all too well of going against these guys every day and they played big-time football. Sometimes you have to rely on your defense and they did a great job."

Dillon Mitchell, Herbert's favorite target this year, caught four passes for 103 yards and a touchdown against the Sun Devils

Arizona State (6-5, 4-4 Pac-12) headed to Eugene on a three-game winning streak and needing a win to stay alive in its division race. But Utah defeated Colorado 30-7 in Boulder earlier in the day, giving the No. 19 Utes six wins in conference play. The Sun Devils' loss meant they could not catch Utah with just one game to go.

The Ducks (7-4, 4-4) were also bowleligible but had stumbled with three losses in their previous four games. Saturday's game was Oregon's last at home this season before hitting the road for the Civil War against Oregon State on Thanksgiving weekend.

Oregon was already eliminated from the Pac-12 North title race, which will be decided by next weekend's Apple Cup between No. 17 Washington and No. 8 Washington State. But the victory over ASU assured the Ducks would finish above .500 in coach Mario Cristobal's first year.

Manny Wilkins threw for 182 yards and two touchdowns for ASU. N'Keal Harry had seven catches for 105 yards. And Eno Benjamin, the Pac-12's leading rusher, had 29 carries for 149 yards.

Up next for the Sun Devils is the rivalry game against Arizona.

"This team didn't end on a down note, we ended the game fighting our butts off, and that's what matters," Wilkins said. "We've got a big one coming up this week and our guys are going to be ready. We're going to be dialed up and ready to go, simple as

After Oregon built a 28-12 lead at halftime, the Sun Devils made it interesting with 11 minutes left when Brandon Aiyuk caught a 25-yard scoring pass from Wilkins to close within 28-23. Oregon answered with Adam Stack's 28-vard field goal.

The Sun Devils scored again on Wilkins' 1-yard touchdown run with 4:35 left, but the two-point conversion failed and Oregon remained in front.

Herbert was intercepted on a tipped pass by ASU's Cam Phillips, but on the ensuing drive Oregon recovered a Sun Devil fumble to get the ball back with just over three minutes to go.

"I think we got rolling pretty good, and we had a couple a couple of times when we didn't get the ball rolling and I think we started pressing, I think you could see that in our players. We dropped some balls and we made some critical errors that ended up being turnovers," Cristobal said.

CJ Verdell ran for the opening Oregon touchdown and also caught an 18-year scoring pass from Herbert, who also found Mitchell with a 57-yard scoring pass in the first half. Jaylon Redd scored on an 8-yard

Brandon Ruiz kicked field goals from 38, 30 and 29 yards for the Sun Devils, while Wilkins had a 22-yard touchdown pass to Frank Darby.

"We fell a little short and that's kind of how it's been for us. We've lost games by one score and if you win a couple more of those, you're not sitting in this position, but our record is what it is and we fell a little short tonight," ASU coach Herm Edwards

Beavers fall on the road to Browning, Huskies, 42-23

By Tim Booth

SEATTLE — Chris Petersen thought he'd make it through his pregame speech the night before the final home game for Washington's seniors. Then he looked at quarterback Jake Browning, and Petersen's

"There's no one that's spent more time in this office since the moment he got here," Petersen said. "It's exactly how it's supposed to be and he's a rare individual in terms of never flinching, always the same, always prepping as hard as he possibly can, completely locked in at all times. It's hard to do for anybody let alone a college kid going through this

Browning provided one more memory for Petersen and his teammates in his final home game, throwing three first-half touchdowns in No. 17 Washington's 42-23 win over Oregon State on Saturday.

Browning threw two of his three TDs in the first quarter as Washington jumped to a 28-3 lead. Fellow senior Myles Gaskin rushed for 135 yards and the Huskies (8-3, 6-2 Pac-12) used the fast start to make certain next week's Apple Cup against No. 8 Washington State carried all the meaning it possibly could.

The meeting against the Cougars will be a winnertake-all matchup for the Pac-12 North Division title. The winner of the 111th matchup will play in the conference title game with a Rose Bowl

"There's a lot on the line," process. (It's) really special."

berth at stake.

Browning said about the Apple Cup. "But I think more it's a quick turnaround. I better, that's an advantage. The Huskies dominated Oregon State (2-9, 1-7) early then coasted the final three quarters. After getting a week off, Washington 28-point first quarter tied a school record last accomplished in the 2016 Apple Cup against Washington State. Salvon Ahmed rushed for a pair of short touchdowns and Browning took advantage of his chances. He hit Aaron Fuller on a 17-yard TD after Oregon State fumbled a kickoff, and he later hit tight end Cade Otton on a 21-yard touchdown.

think whatever team can adjust to that quick turnaround

Browning finished 17 of 23 for 242 yards and a 205.3 passer rating, but was still playing early in the fourth quarter and took some unneeded shots as Washington's protection broke down. He finished his career with 55 touchdown passes at Husky Stadium.

"I don't really care what people were hoping for this whole season. Every team is undefeated at the beginning of the season. Everybody beats the crap out of each other in the Pac-12," Browning said. "It's who can absorb the blows. and just keep battling, because there's plenty of teams that, like us, had high expectations for their season, and haven't been able to absorb the blows and keep battling."

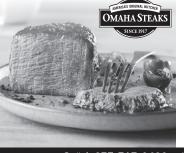

Gaskin had 135 yards rushing, but it was a disappointing total after the way he started. Gaskin had 101 vards after just three carries —including a 64-yard burst on the third play of the game to set up Washington's first touchdown. He finished the first half with 107 yards rushing, but his only time finding the end zone came on a 10-vard pass from Browning late in the half. Gaskin added a rushing touchdown in the third quarter on a 6-yard run one play after a punt by Washington hit an Oregon State blocker and was recovered by the Huskies.
