

Celebrate the new year with art shows

■ Baker City galleries will stay open late for the First Friday art walk of the year

BAKER CITY — Kick off the new year with art shows featuring subjects from near and far Jan. 3 in Baker City.

CROSSROADS

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center welcomes back the Annual Student Art Show starting with an opening reception from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Friday. Allison Swensen-Mitchell's music students will give a live performance accompanied by Hannah Violette. Enjoy some light refreshments and enter for a chance to win a $25 gift certificate to D&J Taco Shop.

The art show will feature work from schools as well as artwork created in classes offered at Crossroads including 2-D artists Becky Litke, Paul Hoelscher, Amy VanGaasbeck, Jan Clark, Megan McGuinness, Hillery Lay and Antonia Carriere, and 3-D classes such as pottery and various mixed medias taught by Shannon Gray, Mo Quinn, Ginger Rembold, Mary Sue Rightmire, Terri Axness, Dawn Marie de Lara and Brenda Johnson.

"We hope to see many artists who took art classes enter this year and that the show will inspire the creativity within this community," said Crystal Rainwater, community art director.

Also in January, Art from the Pine-Eagle School District will be
