BEAVERS

double figures in at least one of the two road games this past weekend.

Slocum had 22, Pivec 21, Taya Corosdale 13 and Joanna Grymek 12 in the win against UCLA, while Maddie Washington had a career-high 19 and Aleah Goodman went for 17 in the win over USC. Pivec also had double figures with 21 against the Trojans.

The big games by Grymek and Washington in the post are just what the Beavers could use moving forward. Both had been in a peripheral role offensively, mostly taking handoffs and dumpoffs or scoring on rebound putbacks to get their points.

“Now we’re able to throw the ball inside,” Rueck said. “They’re seeing themselves more accurately as capable. So when you have five scorers that can beat you at the rim, mid-range and 3, that’s a hard team to beat.”

REVENGE GAMES

Sure, Oregon State had already exacted a measure of revenge against UCLA and USC last season at home after its lost weekend on the road — UCLA won by 25 and the Trojans rallied from 18 down to pick up a win that dropped the Beavers to 2-2 in conference play — early in the conference season.

But that road trip still seemed fresh on the players’ minds last week, with several players admitting revenge was a motivating factor.

Pivec recalled Tuesday that the Beavers had to run 27 down and backs a season ago soon after they returned home from that trip to remind them of the 27 turnovers they committed against the Trojans.

“So it was easy to remember how poor that weekend went so we wanted to improve on that and get back at those guys,” Pivec said.

TUDOR'S ROLE

Tudor was on the bench cheering on her teammates in Los Angeles as she waits to have surgery, likely toward the end of next week, for her torn ACL.

While she obviously won’t be back this season, she has tried to remain engaged and has become a vocal supporter on the bench.

“Even though she hasn’t been able to contribute points or assists or rebounds on the court, she’s been able to contribute energy and positivity out there so she’s a huge part of our team,” Pivec said.

ON ARIZONA

Arizona will come to Gill Coliseum for Friday night’s 7 p.m. tip against the Beavers (14-2, 4-0) as one of the surprise teams in the Pac-12.

The Wildcats are 13-3 overall and 3-2 in conference play with losses to Utah (80-64) and Stanford (78-48).

The Beavers are 9-3 against the Wildcats under Rueck, including nine straight wins with all but two coming by double digits. Last year Oregon State won by 40 and 25.

TIGERS

JaLay Burns led the Knights with 13 points, while Alyssa Luna added a team best six rebounds.

The Tigers (10-3 overall) return to Greater Oregon League action Friday with a key matchup at Baker, with both teams sitting at 2-0 in the GOL.

Carrying over the solid ball movement from Tuesday will be vital to the Tigers if they want to upend Baker, which has won the last two GOL titles.

“We need to be able to communicate and pump each other up, and pass as well as we did today,” Dunlap said.

LHS BOYS FALL ON THE ROAD

A second-half rally by the La Grande Tigers boys basketball team came up just short in a 51-50 road loss to The Dalles Riverhawks Tuesday night.

La Grande was down

31-19 at the half before scoring 21 third-quarter points to get within 44-40. The Tigers pulled even closer, but The Dalles held on for the win.

Cristian Mendoza and Hunter Youngblood both scored 11 points to lead La Grande. Zach Wiggins and Kaleb Myer added nine apiece.

La Grande (4-9 overall) travels to Baker Friday for a Greater Oregon League contest.

Don’t expect that lopsided of a battle on Friday night.

“I feel like it’s a completely different team from a year ago,” Washington said. “So just seeing their success, I’m excited to play against them. It’s going to be a challenge and a great game.”

The Wildcats are led by Washington transfer Aari McDonald, who through Monday was third in the country in scoring at 25.6 points per game.

“Lightning fast, maybe the quickest, fastest player in the conference,” Rueck said of McDonald, who sat out last season after transferring. “And now they’ve got belief, they’ve got confidence, they’ve got a new hope and they’ve got talent.”
