DUCKS

VanDerveer said after Stanford beat Washington in the semifinals on Saturday night her team didn't play well offensively against the Ducks in the meeting last month and that they would "battle and play their game" this time.

Stanford (28-4) gave Oregon everything it could handle early on. The Cardinal built a 14-point lead early in the third quarter. It was the largest deficit the Ducks had faced this season. But then the offense went cold and the Ducks (29-4) scored 10 straight points at the start of an 18-3 run and took their first lead of the game on two free throws by Ionescu with 52 seconds left in the third quarter.

The teams traded the lead in the fourth before Carrington took over with 4:02 left.

"I'm a little disappointed with our execution early in the fourth quarter," Oregon coach Kelly Graves said. "This is the time we normally shine. It doesn't derail our goals of doing well in the NCAA Tournament and going a long way. We feel bad now and hopefully will learn from this and go forward."

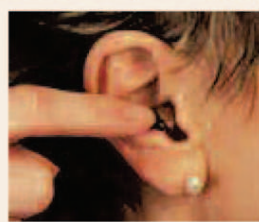

Stanford got off to a quick start and led 33-24 at the half behind 14 points from Carrington and seven points and nine rebounds from Smith. Ionescu was only bright spot on offense for the Ducks as she had 13 points.

"Honestly we didn't come out and have any fire and they came out and they really wanted to beat us and we were on our heels most of the game," Ionescu said. "We didn't fight back hard enough and long enough to win this game."
