The Badgers finished with a 26-4 record, placed in the top three at state for the second straight season and rode a 12-game winning streak to a state title game berth. The Elgin Huskies landed two players on all-league — one on first team and one on second team — after going 9-12 on the season. Junior Tymra Anderson, who proved to be a force in the low post for the Huskies, was named to the first team, and sophomore Jocelyn Palmer was a second-team selection. Elgin finished 5-7 in the OOL, one win shy of a district playoff spot

The Imbler Panthers had a tough season in the record book, going 5-16 overall, but saw senior Caysie McGinness round out the first-team all-league honors as the do-everything guard led her team in scoring. The Wallowa Cougars, who went 14-12 and reached the state playoffs for the first time in four years, landed two players on honorable mention as senior Riley Ferré and junior Jamie Johnston were recognized by the OOL coaches. The Cougars went 9-3 in league play. The Cove Leopards also placed two players — freshman Maggie Frisch and junior Austin Kendall — on honorable mention after a 12-12 season, which ended one win short of a state playoff berth. ■
