

DAILY PLANNER

TODAY

Today is Wednesday, April 3, the 93rd day of 2019. There are 272 days left in the year.

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHT

On April 3, 1968, civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr. delivered what turned out to be his final speech, telling a rally of striking sanitation workers in Memphis, Tennessee, that "I've been to the mountaintop and "seen the Promised Land. I may not get there with you. But I want you to know tonight that we, as a people, will get to the Promised Land!" (About 20 hours later, King was felled by an assassin's bullet at the Lorraine Motel.)

ON THIS DATE

In 1860, the legendary Pony Express began carrying mail between St. Joseph, Missouri, and Sacramento, California. (The delivery system lasted only 18 months before giving way to the transcontinental telegraph.)

In 1882, outlaw Jesse James was shot to death in St. Joseph, Missouri, by Robert Ford, a member of James' gang.

In 1936, Bruno Hauptmann was electrocuted in Trenton, New Jersey, for the kidnap-murder of Charles Lindbergh Jr.

In 1942, during World War II, Japanese forces began their final assault on Bataan against American and Filipino troops who surrendered six days later; the capitulation was followed by the notorious Bataan Death March.

In 1944, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Smith v. Allwright, struck down a Democratic Party of Texas rule that allowed only white voters to participate in Democratic primaries.

GRH offers free blood screenings in Union County

UNION, ELGIN, LA GRANDE — Grande Ronde Hospital's annual free community blood screenings will be offered in April. There will be three opportunities to take advantage of more than $150 worth of free blood testing: April 6 at the GRH Union Clinic, April 13 at the GRH Elgin Clinic, or April 27 at the GRH Pavilion in downtown La Grande. All screenings are on Saturday mornings from 7 a.m. to 10 a.m. and will be filled on a first come first serve basis to the first 100 people. A 9-12 hour fast is required; GRH reminds participants to drink plenty of fresh water. GRH provides this free health service once a year for the essential screenings that monitor cardiac health, glucose and red blood cell count. For more information, call 541-963-1418 or 541-963-1480.

Farmers Market Vendor Symposium is Saturday

ENTERPRISE — The fifth annual Wallowa County Farmers Market Vendor Symposium is planned for April 6 at Fishtrap House, 400 E. Grant St., Enterprise. The free event runs from 9 a.m. to noon and is open to anyone who is planning to be or is interested in being a vendor at the Wallowa County Farmers Market. The symposium features keynote speaker Judy Goodman of BGood Bars, a panel sharing small business perspectives, and a 2019 season update with Market Manager Emily Aumann. New and veteran vendors are welcome.

Get your team together for County Letter Bee 'funraiser'

ENTERPRISE — On April 15, the eighth annual Rotary of Wallowa County Community Letter Bee will be held at the OK Theatre, 208 W. Main St., Enterprise. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. Termed "a fun fundraiser" by organizers, the community spelling competition benefits Wallowa County charities and Rotary scholarships.

Registration is open for teams of three. The registration fee is $100 for adult teams and $50 for student teams. There will be rounds for groups ranging from kindergarten to adults. Costumes and creativity are encouraged, and there will be prizes for competitors. Spectators are encouraged to attend for a suggested donation of $2.

IHS seniors yard sale raises money for grad party

IMBLER — The Imbler High School class of 2019 is hosting a yard sale from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. April 6 in the Imbler School's elementary gym. Proceeds from the sale will be used for the seniors' Graduation Celebration. For more information, call Deana Barry at 541-910-3755 or Laura Treat at 541-786-5617.

Registration is open for annual Wellness Event

LA GRANDE — Registration is open for the 19th annual Rita Monahan Wellness Event, put on by

Oregon Health and Science University's School of Nursing of La Grande and Eastern Oregon University's Wellness Program. Before her passing in 1999 from colon cancer, OHSU professor Rita Monahan requested that a scholarship fund be created in her memory to assist graduating students in paying for their registered nurse licensure examination. This year's event will take place from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. May 4 at Dorion Park, near the corner of Sixth Street and H Avenue in La Grande. The public event is free and includes a 5K walk/run, health-related booths, music, raffle items, health screenings and fitness demonstrations. Registration for the 5K walk/run is $20 for community members and $15 for students. Pre-registration will be open through April 14. Participants receive a T-shirt with the entry fee. To register or make a donation, visit eou.edu/wellness-form. For more details, contact the event's coordinator, Amy Black, at 541-792-0079 or blackam@ohsu.edu.

Rummage for treasures at Saturday's sale

LA GRANDE — The La Grande First Presbyterian Church women's group is hosting a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to noon April 6 at the Presbyterian Friendship Center, 1204 Spring Ave. The community is invited to come search for treasures and stay for the goodies. (Previously published times were incorrect.)
