9 p.m. on SHOW
The Affair

Anna Paquin ("True Blood") joins the cast as this turbulent drama enters its fifth and final season, which finds the characters confronting the consequences of their actions in the aftermath of Season 4's horrific events. The actress plays Joanie, the now-adult daughter of Alison and Cole (former cast members Ruth Wilson and Joshua Jackson), whose path likely will intersect those of Noah and Helen (Dominic West, Maura Tierney), although further details are under wraps.

10 p.m. on SHOW
On Becoming a God in Central Florida

Kirsten Dunst, who starred in Season 2 of the FX series " Fargo," returns to the small screen in another dark comedy, on which she also is an executive producer. The actress stars as Krystal Stubbs, a minimum-wage water-park employee whose life was ruined by a pyramid-marketing scheme. Determined to get some measure of revenge, Krystal gets involved with the relevant company, Founders American Merchandise (FAM). The excellent ensemble cast also includes Théodore Pellerin, Mel Rodriguez and Ted Levine.

10:30 p.m. on HBO
Ballers

HBO is keeping most of the story information under wraps at the moment, but Dwayne Johnson returns as financial manager Spencer Strasmore as the hit sports dramedy returns for its fifth season. Season 4 ended on an explosive note, as Spencer filed a lawsuit against the NCAA, charging that the organization was complicit in his brother's suicide. The group responded by offering to reinstate the suspended Quincy (Eli Goree) if the suit were dropped. John David Washington, Omar Miller and Rob Corddry also return.
