

Codi Cunningham, Carrin Yaw, and Katie Hoffman

2019-2020 Wallowa 4-H Court Announced

The members of the 2019-2020 Wallowa County 4-H Court are Codi Cunningham, the daughter of Collin and Jessie Cunningham; Carrin Yaw, daughter of Craig and Kathleen Yaw; and Katie Hoffman, daughter of Elynn and Melissa Hoffman. Cunningham is entering eighth grade at Enterprise Junior High, Yaw is entering tenth grade at Enterprise High School and Hoffman is entering ninth grade at Joseph Charter School.

Their selection was announced at the awards program for the Wallowa County Fair. The girls will spend this coming year promoting 4-H across the county, acting as emcees for awards programs and working with community organizations as the official representatives of the Wallowa County 4-H program. At the Hells Canyon Mule

Days event, the trio will be in the downtown parade on Saturday morning handing out balloons to youngsters, and they will help serve at the Pit B-B-Q Scholarship Dinner Saturday evening. They will also be selling "Mule Chip Lottery" tickets to help support the Max Walker Memorial Scholarship Fund. Make sure to buy your lucky number space from them on Saturday for a chance to win $250.00.

The HCMD show committee thanks the 4-H Court for giving their energy and support to the Mule Days event, and wishes them a great year with all their 4-H activities and projects!

For more information about the 4-H program contact Debi Warnock at 541-426-3143.
