8 p.m. on COOK
Freakshow Cakes

This reality competition series concludes its short first season with a finale called "Flame Show," a pyro-centric half hour in which co-hosts Zac Young and Vivian Chan welcome three teams of bakers, who are tasked with designing some smoking-hot cakes inspired by an infamous fire breather. Later, they're tasked with coming up with a fiery sideshow to accompany their dangerous cake displays.

8 p.m. on LIFE

Movie: Sweet Mountain Christmas
En route to New York for a Christmas concert, country music star Laney Blu (Megan Hilty) finds herself stranded by a freak snowstorm in the Tennessee hometown she hasn't seen in years. Laney has decidedly mixed emotions about this homecoming, since the community was not especially kind to her when she was younger. As she reluctantly agrees to take part in a local holiday program, however, she lets go of old resentments and embraces a potential romance in this 2019 yuletide drama. Marcus Rosner also stars.

8 p.m. on LIFEMOV
Movie: Designed to Kill

Suzanne (Jamie Luner) is a full-blown psychotic, but she's also an accomplished fashion photographer, and when she manages to transform unassuming high-school nerd David (Joshua Hoffman) into an authentically hot male model, he's obviously grateful for her help. Unfortunately, that's when Suzanne turns the crazy dial to 10 and becomes obsessed with her new creation, a fatal attraction that compels her to homicidal actions. Linsey Godfrey also stars in this 2018 thriller.

10 p.m. on TLC
Long Lost Family

Hosts Chris Jacobs and Lisa Joyner return with more stories of estranged relatives forced to endure extended separation from their loved ones, but who now get to take a step toward finding and reuniting with those relatives. Tonight's opener involves identical twins seeking their birth mother. Future episodes include the poignant story of a man whose failure thus far to find his birth mother has led to a profound case of abandonment issues.
