Ezra Rose takes stage Nov. 8 and 9

Ezra Rose performs twice in NE Oregon

LA GRANDE, ENTERPRISE — Portland's dream rock/psychedelic pop band Ezra Rose takes the stage at hq, 112 Depot St., La Grande, for the first time Nov. 8. Doors open at 7:30 p.m., and music starts at 9 p.m. Admission is $5.

The band plays again Nov. 9 at the Range Rider, 107 NW First St., Enterprise, beginning at 6 p.m.

According to a press release, "Ezra Rose's fourth LP is its most powerful to date. This band continues to evolve. On each and every track, Ezra Rose gets to the very root of the weeds growing in society's garden, while providing sun and oxygen in the form of driving rhythms, aggressive electric guitars, and dreamy vocal melodies with lyrical grit."
