tonight's best

Hill Harper

8 p.m. on FOX
9-1-1

The team responds to a host of wildly diverse emergencies in a new episode called "Malfunction," including a bizarre skating mishap at an ice show, a crash involving an allegedly self-driving car and even a robot going rogue at an Amazon-like fulfillment warehouse. Elsewhere, Hen (Aisha Hinds) struggles in her relationship with Karen (guest star Tracie Thomas), and Eddie's (Ryan Guzman) after-hours fight club spins out of control. Wallace Langham and Andy Cohen guest star; Peter Krause also stars.

10 p.m. on ABC
The Good Doctor

Shaun's (Freddie Highmore) unique psychology gives him the ability to relate to a patient who currently is isolated by an autoimmune deficiency, yielding an unexpected result in the new episode "SFAD." Elsewhere, Claire, Morgan and Dr. Andrews (Antonia Thomas, Fiona Gubelmann, Hill Harper) treat a 13-year-old patient who is going blind, and tension escalates between Drs. Melendez and Lim (Nicholas Gonzalez, Christina Chang). Haley Ramm and Kiefer O'Reilly guest star; Richard Schiff also stars.

10 p.m. on HBO
Catherine the Great

The Ottoman Empire declares war, provoked by Russia's brazen display of power, and Catherine (Helen Mirren) makes Potemkin (Jason Clarke) the commander of the Russian forces as this limited series draws to a close. After escalating outside political pressures lead to a bitter argument between Catherine and Potemkin, who is now in ill health, Catherine works to change the line of succession as her reign draws to an inevitable end. Antonia Clarke and Gina McKee also star.
