Family Day at Oregon Trail Center

Skip shopping and brush up on history

BAKER CITY — Although the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center will be closed Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day, it will be open during normal hours of operation for the rest of the holiday weekend.

For those who prefer to avoid the holiday shopping rush, a Family Fun Day is planned Friday, Nov. 29, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Enjoy pioneer games, tall tales from the Oregon Trail, a selfie station, and other fun surprises. For $3 per person, make your choice of three seasonal crafts to take home: paper snowflakes, pine cone bird feeders, recipe in a jar, rag doll tying or sagebrush disc ornaments.

Explore "Uncanny Tales Along the Oregon Trail" in the Flagstaff Gallery, featuring the folklore that sprung up around the pioneer experience, and the role these tales play in the history of the Oregon Trail.

The center is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. Admission is $5 adults, $4 seniors and free for children age 15 and younger. America the Beautiful Interagency Park Passes are accepted.
