

SPENCER GERST

Spencer has a blessed life; he has a supportive family and an outstanding group of friends around him that motivate him to be the best person he can be. He has dedicated years of hard work to this grueling, face mashing, bare your heart and soul in the toughest of moments - sport. His father Bill Gerst is relentless in pursuit of physical activity and pushes Spencer every day to do more. Spencer believes difficulties in life are how you learn and grow as a person and it's all about attitude.
