"Movie: Bumblebee"

This 2018 quasi-reboot of the "Transformers" movie franchise didn't wind up making as much money as some of the other titles in the action series, but it earned by far the best reviews, thanks in large part to Hailee Steinfeld's very affecting lead performance as Charlie Watson, an 18-year-old who finds and befriends the titular young Autobot scout (voiced by Dylan O'Brien). Among others providing Transformer voices are Angela Bassett, Justin Theroux and Peter Cullen; John Cena and Jorge Lendeborg Jr. also star.

December 20

"Movie: The Aeronauts"

"The Theory of Everything" co-stars Felicity Jones and Eddie Redmayne reunite for this action movie in which they play a pilot and a scientist who struggle to survive while trying to make discoveries from a gas balloon. Himesh Patel, Tim McInnerny and Lewin Lloyd are also in the cast for director Tom Harper. (ORIGINAL) Premiere

"Movie: The Wedding Year"

A commitment-phobic twentysomething (Sarah Hyland, "Modern Family") finds her relationship with her new boyfriend (Tyler James Williams) sorely tested when they attend seven weddings in the same year. Keith David, Anna Camp and Jenna Dewan are also in the cast of this 2019 comedy movie for director Robert Luketic ("21").

"Movie: The Kill Team"

A fictionalized adaptation of the 2013 documentary of the same name, this 2019 actioner stars Nat Wolff as a young American soldier who faces a moral dilemma when his platoon participates in the murders of local civilians in Afghanistan. Alexander Skarsgard, Adam Long and Rob Morrow also star for director Dan Krauss, who also helmed the original.
