8 p.m. on PBS
Lucy Worsley's 12 Days of Tudor Christmas

Royal historian Lucy Worsley hosts this new one-hour special, which brings to life the ritual and riches of the 12-day Christmas holiday as it was celebrated during the reign of England's King Henry VIII. Wearing period costume, Worsley points out how a surprising number of contemporary yuletide traditions — gift-giving, carol-singing and drinking mulled wine — have their origins in the Tudor period. She also explains the significance of these and other activities, some of which were recreated expressly for this special.

8 p.m. on NBC
Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas

Since its first airing in 1966, this adaptation of the Dr. Seuss children's book has evolved into an annual holiday viewing tradition. Legendary animator Chuck Jones directed the story about a green-skinned grouch who sets out to spoil Christmas for the citizens of Whoville. Boris Karloff provides narration, with additional voices by Thurl Ravenscroft and June Foray. "Fame" co-star Albert Hague was the co-composer of the theme music. Ron Howard's 2000 live-action feature film adaptation starring Jim Carrey in the title role immediately follows.

8 p.m. on HALL
When Calls the Heart

A special holiday episode called "Home for Christmas" finds Elizabeth (Erin Krakow) getting ready for Little Jack's first Christmas and birthday, with her closest friends on hand. Despite all their support, however, she finds herself missing Jack more than ever. Nathan (Kevin McGarry) receives a highly tempting job offer in Union City, but is reluctant to leave Elizabeth and take his niece away from Hope Valley. Meanwhile, Lucas (Chris McNally) hopes to score points with Elizabeth by holding a Christmas festival.

9 p.m. on PBS
Call the Midwife

After a wave of influenza sweeps through both Nonnatus House and the Turner family as Christmas approaches, Mother Mildred (Miriam Margolyes) announces that God is calling her to set up a branch house in the Outer Hebrides of Scotland in this 90-minute holiday special. Since the islands are suffering from a severe shortage of doctors and nurses, Dr. Turner (Stephen McCann) joins Mother Mildred, along with Shelagh, Trixie and Sister Julianne (Laura Main, Helen George, Jenny Agutter), among others.
