■ Anthony Lakes plans festive season

NORTH POWDER — Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort opened for the season Dec. 21 and will be open daily through the holiday break.

The Wasteland Kings will provide live music from 3-6 p.m. Dec. 28. The concert is sponsored by Barley Brown's Brewpub.

Lift tickets will be half price on Jan. 2 and every Thursday during the resort's season. Regular price is $40.

For an event calendar, visit www.anthonylakes.com.

'SKI FOR FREE' PROGRAM

The "Ski for Free" program for fifth- and sixth-grade students begins Jan. 5. Children in these grades can ski for free on Sundays for eight weeks.

Participants register every Sunday from 9-10 a.m. in the lower level of the main lodge. They must bring a school ID or current report card in order to register.

Students will receive a free lift ticket, rental and mandatory lesson. Adults accompanying the students will receive a $20 lift ticket.

Students who attend seven of the eight Sundays may then purchase a season pass for the remaining season and following winter for $150. The regular price for a youth season pass is $240.

This winter's program runs through Feb. 23, 2020.
