Cheer

January 8 "Cheer"

From the makers of "Last Chance U" comes this six-episode documentary series that follows the competitive cheerleaders of Texas' Navarro College, a small junior college that has won 14 national championships since 2000, as they surmount a variety of challenges to ready themselves for another title bid. January 10 "AJ and the Queen"

RuPaul ("RuPaul's Drag Race") is co-creator (with Michael Patrick King, "Sex and the City"), writer and star of this campy dramedy series about a down-on-his-luck drag queen traversing the U.S. in a van with a tough-talking 10-year-old stowaway (Izzy G., "The Highwaymen"). Tia Carrere ("Wayne's World") and Katerina Tannenbaum ("Better Call Saul") are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL) Series Premiere

"Medical Police"

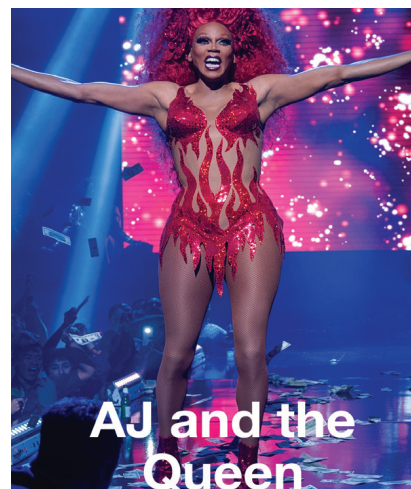

Fans of the medical drama parody "Childrens Hospital" will want to check out this comedy series in which Erinn Hayes and Rob Huebel reprise their roles of Drs. Lola Spratt and Owen Maestro, who discover a deadly virus in Brazil and are recruited to find a cure and uncover a dark conspiracy. Former "Childrens" regular Rob Corddry also stars. (ORIGINAL) Series Premiere

"Zumbo's Just Desserts"

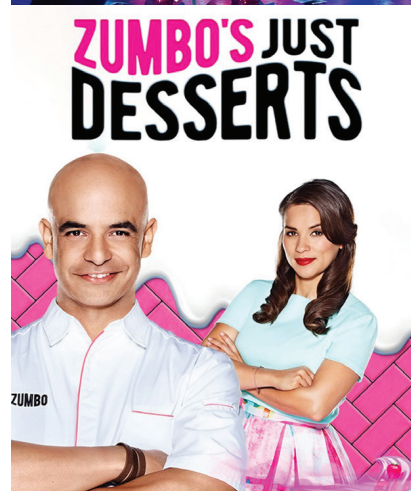

Season 2 of this Australian baking competition series returns co-hosts Adriano Zumbo and Rachel Khoo to the Dessert Factory to judge the elaborate cakes, confections and other sweets created by the show's contestants. (ORIGINAL) Season Premiere
