"Justified"

Timothy Olyphant stars as a U.S. Marshal reassigned from Miami to his childhood hometown in rural Kentucky as all six seasons of this 2010-15 FX drama come to Hulu. Nick Searcy, Joelle Carter, Walton Goggins ("The Unicorn") and Natalie Zea ("The Detour") are also in the solid cast.

January 20
"Movie: Honeyland"

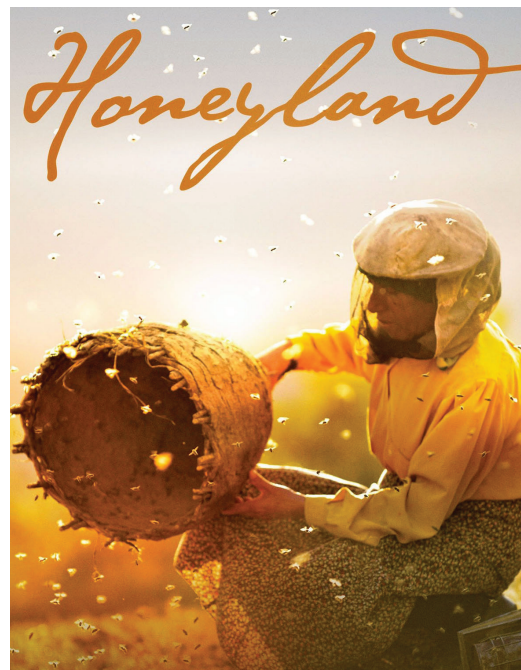

From Macedonia and directors Tamara Kotevska and Ljubomir Stefanov comes this 2019 documentary about the last female beekeeper in Europe, who must save her bees when a family of nomadic beekeepers invades her land and threatens her livelihood.

January 23
"Movie: The Prodigy"

Pennsylvania couple Sarah and John Blume (Taylor Schilling, Peter Mooney) notice that their little boy, Miles (Jackson Robert Scott), seems unusually precocious, displaying startling verbal skills even as a toddler. When he turns 8, however, he plays a "prank" on his babysitter that leaves her seriously injured. As his behavior becomes aggressively violent and threatening, Sarah and John wonder whether some evil entity has seized control of their son. Colm Feore co-stars in this 2019 thriller.

January 24
"Shrill"

Season 2 of this comedy series finds Annie (Aidy Bryant) on a high, having faced down her demons — her mother, her boss and her troll — and stopped being a doormat. But problems soon crop up when she hastily quits her job and comes to the realization that boyfriend Ryan (Luka Jones) may not be the man for her. Lolly Adefope and John Cameron Mitchell are also cast returnees. (ORIGINAL) Season Premiere

Coming Soon

"Brian Banks" (Jan. 27)

Aldis Hodge ("Underground") stars as the football player whose dreams of playing in the NFL were derailed when he was falsely accused — and subsequently convicted — of sexual assault in this 2018 drama movie.

"Luca" (Jan. 27)

Parents are forced to reckon when a teacher raises a red flag on their son, who they adopted from war-torn Eritrea, in this 2019 drama movie that stars Naomi Watts, Octavia Spencer and Tim Roth.

"Little Fires Everywhere" (March 2020)

Kerry Washington and Reese Witherspoon are among the executive producers of this limited series that's based on Celeste Ng's bestselling novel about a picture-perfect family and the enigmatic mother and daughter who upend their lives. Washington, Witherspoon, Rosemarie DeWitt, Jade Pettyjohn and Lexi Underwood are in the cast. (ORIGINAL)
