MAIN GALLERY

4th Annual Fiber Arts & Jewelry January 31 - March 28, 2020

Free Admission

Art Center East presents Farmers Markets in Fiber, our 4th Annual Fiber Arts & Jewelry Exhibit. The exhibit invited artists to use photographs taken at a regional farmers market as a springboard to create new works in fiber. Each artist selected one inspiring image, interpreting its colors, textures, and subject through the lens of their chosen medium. Viewers have the chance to compare the two - getting a glimpse into the creative process - as the photograph and the finished piece are displayed side-by-side. Sponsored by the La Grande Quilt Shop.

CO-OP GALLERY

New Works by Damian Garcia January 31 - March 28, 2020

Free Admission

Damian Garcia is an emerging artist from Los Angeles, California who recently relocated back to his home state after studying art at Eastern Oregon University. His work focuses on layered images using ballpoint pen and acrylic paint on wood panels. He has exhibited his work in Alabama, California, Oregon, and Washington.

MUSIC & DANCE

Mandolin (Age 10+)

March 2, 9, 16, 23 from 5:30 - 6:30pm

A class for beginners or those already started on their mandolin journey. Learn the basics of how to hold and pick a mandolin, then a few chords for simple songs. We'll learn to play as a group in this informal setting, building fun and fellowship through music. Bring your own mandolin or contact Art Center East if you would like to join the class but don't have an instrument. Please enter through the Penn Avenue door.

Teaching Artist: Dave Felley

Cost: $40 Member / $50 Non-Member

Preschool Music Time (Age 3-6)

March 3, 10 from 10:00 - 10:45 am

In this kid + parent class, we will explore rhythm and beats through song, rhyme, and movement. Participants will make their own shaker and get to play on African drums. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Please enter through the Penn Avenue door.
