DAVID CROSBY: REMEMBER MY NAME

Princess Cyd

February 23

"Movie: David Crosby: Remember My Name"

This A.J. Eaton-directed, Cameron Crowe-produced 2019 documentary earned a Grammy nomination for best music film for its brutally frank portrait of the iconic singer/songwriter as he contemplates the last act of his life. Jackson Browne, Supertramp's Roger McGuinn and one-time Crosby collaborators Graham Nash, Stephen Stills and Neil Young are among those offering their insights.

"Movie: Wrinkles the Clown"

Michael Beach Nichols ("The Man Behind the Curtain") directed this comedic 2019 documentary about the titular professional clown in Naples, Fla., who parents can employ to scare their misbehaving offspring, and who also hires out to prank unsuspecting adults.

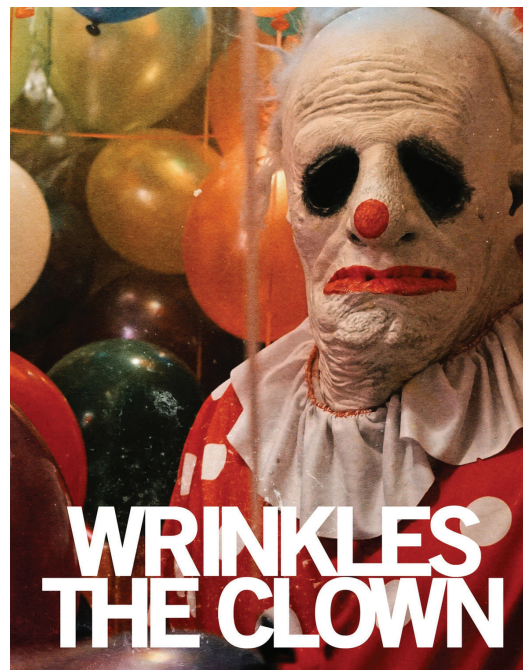

"Movie: Princess Cyd"

A 16-year-old athlete (Jessie Pinnick, "Chicago Fire") staying in Chicago with her novelist aunt for the summer finds love with a neighborhood girl in this 2017 drama movie from director Stephen Cone ("Henry Gamble's Birthday Party"). Rebecca Spence, Bryce Gangel and Malic White also star.

"Movie: After the Wedding"

The founder of an Indian orphanage (Michelle Williams, "All the Money in the World") gets a big surprise when she attends the wedding of a potential benefactor's (Julianne Moore, "Still Alice") daughter in this 2019 drama movie from director Bart Freundlich ("Trust the Man"). Billy Crudup, Abby Quinn and Alex Esola are also in the cast.
