Jimmy Kimmel

9 p.m. on ABC Modern Family

The Emmy-winning sitcom ends its 11-season run with a one-hour series closer, "Finale Part 1, Finale Part 2." As Mitch and Cam (Jesse Tyler Ferguson, Eric Stonestreet) settle into their new normal, Phil and Claire (Ty Burrell, Julie Bowen) decide one of their kids must move out before they can take back control of their home. Meanwhile, Gloria (Sofia Vergara) becomes more successful at work, but notices the men in her life are becoming more self-sufficient. Ed O'Neill also stars.

9 p.m. on FREE Motherland: Fort Salem

As the base is sent reeling by a traumatic event, Raelle (Taylor Hickson) is left to struggle with the role she played in that tragedy in the new episode "Hail Beltane." While Scylla (Amalia Holm) tries to evade Raelle's pointed questions, Abigail (Ashley Williams) seeks to impress Libba (Sarah Yarkin), who is proving to be a formidable rival. Elsewhere, Tally (Jessica Sutton) grows closer to Gerit (Kai Bradbury) during Beltane, a sacred holiday celebrating fertility traditions.

> 9:01 p.m. on FOX LEGO Masters

For an epic "Star Wars" episode, host Will Arnett welcomes beloved sci-fi robot characters BB-8, C-3PO and R2-D2 to issue a challenge to the contestants that's consistent with the theme: Build your own droids and then use them to replicate iconic scenes from, or inspired by, this blockbuster movie franchise. Judges Amy Corbett and James Berard decide which contestants come up with builds good enough to earn them advancement in the competition.

10:01 p.m. on ABC Who Wants to Be a Millionaire

Less than a year after this game show ended a 17-year run in syndication, ABC brings it back as an eight-episode special event tied to the 20th anniversary of the original ABC premiere of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire," then hosted by Regis Philbin. Jimmy Kimmel, the Alphabet network's latenight star, will host this new celebritydriven version, which will feature stars playing for charity. A new interactive game app also allows viewers at home to play along.
