Dolly Parton

8 p.m. on A&E
Biography: Dolly

This new two-hour special offers an affectionate portrait of Dolly Parton, one of country music's most beloved singers and songwriters, by nature a very private woman, although her songs often include lyrics that reveal a great deal. In addition to exclusive interviews with Parton herself, the film also includes commentary from many of her musicians, co-writers and producers. The documentary also explores why Parton, despite her down-home persona, is widely regarded by industry professionals as one of the most important songwriters of modern times.

9 p.m. on AMC, BBCA
Killing Eve

As Season 3 of this multi-award-winning action drama (simulcast on AMC) opens, the assassin Villanelle (Jodie Comer) is under the distinct impression that she fatally shot her quarry, ex-MI6 operative Eve Polastri (Sandra Oh), during the Season 2 finale set in Rome. As viewers quickly learn, however, Eve survived that attack, although her current status with MI6 remains a bit hazy. Fiona Shaw also stars; new faces for Season 3 include Harriet Walter ("Succession"), Danny Sapani (Hulu's "Harlots" series), Gemma Whelan ("Game of Thrones") and Steve Pemberton ("The League of Gentlemen").

10:35 p.m. on HBO
Run

Recent awards-show "It Girl" Phoebe Waller-Bridge ("Fleabag," "Killing Eve") is an executive producer and recurring cast member in this new romantic comedy series from writer Vicky Jones. Emmy winner Merritt Wever stars as Ruby, whose mundane life is blown up by an old flame, who invites her to honor a long-ago pact they made to run away together.
