■ The Trailhead is maintaining a list of restaurants and businesses that are open in Baker City during the pandemic crisis

BAKER CITY — Many businesses and restaurants are closed due to state guidelines for slowing the spread of the coronavirus, but residents are still encouraged to shop local.

The Trailhead is helping make that happen in Baker City.

The shop, which sells and services bikes and snow equipment, has put together a list of restaurants and businesses that are still open.

In addition to the listings, The Trailhead has compiled local specials — several businesses are offering discounts if you show them a receipt from another local business. There is also a gift card campaign. All of this information is available at www.thetrailheadbakercity.com.

As per order by Oregon Gov. Kate Brown, customers cannot dine in a restaurant. However, takeout is still available, and many eateries take orders over the phone and bring the food to the curb.

Some places will deliver to your door (or within 6 feet of it). Another option is to request delivery through Baker City to Go (www.bakercitytogo.com) or Elkhorn Taxi (541-519-6196).

Here is a list of Baker City restaurants open for business. (This is not a comprehensive list and offerings may change.)
