6 p.m. on TRAV
Buried Worlds With Don Wildman

A familiar face to Travel Channel viewers, host Don Wildman ventures off the beaten path in this new unscripted series, which takes him to new locales to explore some of mankind's darkest mysteries. The series premiere, "Vampire Hunt," finds him in Eastern Europe to discover the facts behind the haunting vampire legends that still have rural villagers looking nervously over their shoulders. He joins a band of Bulgarian vampire hunters to investigate an abandoned village reputedly once terrorized by the undead, then continues his research in Hungary.

9 p.m. on FOOD
Big Time Bake

Buddy Valastro ("Cake Boss") is host and chief judge of this new culinary competition, in which some of the best bakers in the country are challenged to create imaginative cookies, decadent cupcakes and a showpiece cake, all inspired by a surprise theme that's announced at the start of each episode. Once the clock starts, the bakers have six hours to work, during which Valastro and two guest judges from a rotating roster stop by each station every two hours to assess their progress. Judges include Lorraine Pascale and Dan Langan.

10 p.m. on AMC
Creepshow

Originally produced for a streaming service, this TV adaptation of some chilling stories by Stephen King ends its first season on AMC with a double bill that opens with "Skincrawlers," about an overweight man who discovers that the miraculous new weight loss treatment he is undergoing has some unexpected complications. Dana Gould stars. Then, in "By the Silver Water of Lake Champlain," a young woman whose father died looking for a lake monster may suffer a similar fate. Sydney Wease stars.
