“Movie: A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood”

Tom Hanks earned an Academy Award nomination as best supporting actor for his portrayal of beloved children’s TV host Fred Rogers in Marielle Heller’s poignant 2019 biographical drama inspired by an Esquire magazine article. Matthew Rhys stars as a cynical magazine journalist with profound daddy issues, who accepts an assignment to profile Rogers with the intent of exposing the latter as a fraud whose avuncular persona is just a gimmick.

“Brockmire”

All four seasons of this very funny IFC comedy about a famed baseball play-by-play man (Hank Azaria) who attempts to pick himself back up after a very embarrassing public meltdown comes to the streaming service. Amanda Peet and Tyrel Jackson Williams are also in the cast.

“Movie: Clemency”

The psychological toll of her job brings itself to bear on a prison warden (Alfre Woodard) who must face personal demons as she prepares to execute another inmate in this 2019 drama that won the U.S. Dramatic Grand Jury Prize that year at Sundance. Richard Schiff, Danielle Brooks, Aldis Hodge and Wendell Pierce are also in the solid cast for director Chinonye Chukwu (“AlaskaLand”).

“Movie: Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band”

This documentary from Daniel Roher (“Ghosts of Our Forests”) is a revealing, cautionary and at times humorous tale of the creation of The Band, one of the more influential groups of its time. It’s also a chronicle of the early life of its driving creative force and lead guitarist, Robertson. (ORIGINAL)
