

WALLOWA MOUNTAIN CRUISE

Classic cars cruise into Joseph Saturday

JOSEPH — The postponed Wallowa Mountain Cruise is finally happening Saturday, Aug. 29, bringing classic car owners and enthusiasts to Wallowa County.

“It has been a very interesting year in our county,” said Jude Graham, chair of the cruise organizational committee. “There have been as many if not more visitors to our county this year and it was hard finding a weekend to have the cruise.”

Originally scheduled for June, the annual event — formerly known as the Oregon Mountain Cruise — was rescheduled for this weekend because of closures forced by the COVID-19 pandemic. Most events in the county either were severely cut back or canceled altogether.

Graham said the classic car event will be held entirely outdoors and include live music. Organizers are eager to hold the event in spite of the pandemic but urge participants to keep the coronavirus in mind.

“We encourage people to use common sense, bring masks and social distance, etc.,” she said.

The main event is the downtown Joseph Show ‘n’ Shine street show from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. That will be followed by the Ragman Memorial Cruise to Enterprise, which leaves Joseph at 3 p.m.
