In October, the Sumpter Valley Railroad offers fall foliage rides and Halloween trains, with visits to the “haunted” Sumpter Dredge.

Special train rides scheduled in October

SUMPTER — The colors are changing for autumn and the Sumpter Valley Railroad will again offer fall foliage trains in October.

The special foliage runs are set for Oct. 9, 10 and 11, leaving from the McEwen Station at 10 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The one Sunday train departs at noon.

Halloween trains

Later in October, SVRR gets in to the spirit with several days of “short runs” for the Halloween season departing from the Sumpter Station.

Halloween trains on Oct. 23 depart at 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. Passengers may visit the “haunted” Sumpter Dredge.

On Oct. 24, the trains will leave at 2 p.m., 3:30 p.m. and 5 p.m. On these trips, passengers may tour the haunted dredge and also have the opportunity to gather goodies at the annual trunk-or-treat.

Tickets & safety

Tickets must be purchased in advance at www.sumptervalleyrailroad.org. Riders must then print the tickets and bring them to the depot.

Fares vary depending on the trip and the age of the passengers. There are discounts for seniors and members of the military. Age 3 and younger ride free.

COVID-19 safety precautions according to Oregon’s guidelines will be in place, and face coverings are required.

Windows and doors may be left open on the train — passengers are encouraged to dress for cold weather.
