

RETURN TO SCHOOL FOR A SCARE OR TWO

■ Haunted Studios open weekends in October

BAKER CITY — Are you brave enough to go back to school?

Brian and Corrine Vegter — with help from friends — have transformed the basement of Baker City's Churchill School into haunted studios.

Tours will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights throughout the month at Churchill School, 3451 Broadway St.

Tours start at 6 p.m. and begin every 20 minutes for a maximum of six people. Tickets are $12.50 per person and sold in a block of six for $75.

A family-friendly hour (a less scary version) is offered on Sundays at 5:30 p.m.

A link to buy tickets can be found on Churchill's Facebook page and at www.churchillbaker.com. Click on "Haunted Studios."

There are rules: no touching actors or props, no profanity, no running or pushing, no smoking/vaping/lighters, no flashlights, no flash photography, and no food or beverages.

All who enter are required to wear face coverings or face shields.
