

HAPPENING, OR NOT?

Quick TAKES

Oregon Trail Center Family Fun Day canceled

BAKER CITY — The annual Family Fun Day held at the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center has been canceled. This event is usually held the day after Thanksgiving.

Tour BC's holiday porches and vote on your favorite

BAKER CITY — In lieu of the traditional Holiday Parlor Tour in Baker City, this year CASA will present the 2020 Holiday Porch Tour. Residents are encouraged to decorate their porch, fence, walkway or yard for a driving holiday tour of town. Maps will be available Dec. 5 at the CASA office, 1937 Washington Ave.

Prizes will be awarded for Most Creative, Best Traditional and Best in Theme. Winners will be announced Dec. 21.

Those interested in participating must submit their addresses by Dec. 2 to amybriels@gmail.com or 541-910-8538.

Baker City Twilight Parade set for Dec. 5

BAKER CITY — The Baker Chamber of Commerce is planning the annual Twilight Parade for Dec. 5 starting at 5 p.m. The theme is "A Storybook Christmas." The entry fee is $10.

In order to promote the joy of reading, participants are encouraged to decorate their floats to the theme of their favorite children's story while incorporating a festive element to the overall design.

COVID guidelines will be followed. The Chamber asks that attendees wear facial coverings and social distance between families.

There will not be an announcer this year, so families are encouraged to spread out all along Main Street, from Madison Street to Valley Avenue.

For information, call 541-523-5855 or email info@visitbaker.com.

Union holiday celebration includes lighted parade

UNION — A Christmas celebration in downtown Union is in the works for Dec. 5. Vendors will set up by 1 p.m. The parade starts at 5 p.m. followed by visits with Santa, and, at 6 p.m., snacks and shopping at Buffalo Peak.

OHA guidelines will be followed. Those who attend must wear masks and maintain proper social distancing.

Tunesmith Night on hold until 2021

ENTERPRISE — The 15th season of the Wallowa Valley Music Alliance's Tunesmith Night kicked off in a virtual format Oct. 10, but the singer-songwriter showcases won't return until January 2021.

If you missed the October show (or want to watch it again) featuring Toney Rocks, An American Forrest and Margo Cilker and streamed live from Enterprise's OK Theatre, take in the music at www.wvmusicalliance.org/tunesmith-night-oct10.

Take It and Make It – December 5 at Crossroads! 10:00am-3:00pm

Enter through 2nd Street door making sure to maintain social distance and wear face coverings.

This year Crossroads' traditional "Make It and Take It" workshop will be flipped to "Take It and Make It". Each child can come to the art center and choose projects that include all supplies and directions to make the project at home. We are excited for this opportunity to continue the tradition in a new format and hope you enjoy the opportunity to spend some quality craft time with your children.

Project materials are free thanks to the DE and Jane Clark Foundation
