tonight's best

James Spader

8 p.m. on NBC
The Blacklist

Now in its eighth season, this diabolically twisty crime thriller keeps coming up with ways to bring main characters into intense confrontations wherein it seems unlikely more than one player will live to fight another day. That's certainly been true for this show's two central characters, master criminal Raymond "Red" Reddington (James Spader) and FBI special agent Elizabeth Keen (Megan Boone). So just because tonight's new episode finds Liz hellbent on getting revenge on Reddington, nothing fatally irreversible is likely to ensue.

8 p.m. on LMN
Movie: The Wrong Prince Charming

When Bridget, a successful entrepreneur, lands a meeting with the Prince of Devonshire about possibly investing heavily in one of her properties, Anna, Bridget's lawyer, joins her for a royal visit, which is so dazzling that both of the women feel as if they're in a fairy tale. Anna even starts to imagine a happily ever after with the prince, until she discovers he is far from what he seems in this 2021 thriller. Vivica A. Fox, Crisine Prosperi, James Nitti and Tracy Nelson star.

11 p.m. on HBO
Painting With John

John Lurie — a long-standing cult favorite as a musician, actor, director and painter — wrote, directed and stars in this exhilarating new unscripted series, each episode of which is part meditative tutorial and part cozy
